

Children, their World, their Education

A voice for the future of Primary Education

Dissemination Phase

A national professional network underpinned by the core aims and principles of:

equity, empowerment,
expertise and excellence.

From recipe to repertoire

- Shared aims for primary education
- Professional knowledge
- Research evidence

Curriculum domains

- Arts and creativity
- Citizenship and ethics
- Faith and belief
- Language, oracy and literacy
- Mathematics
- Physical and emotional health
- Place and time
- Science and technology

Children

- Well being
- Engagement
- Empowerment
- Autonomy

Twelve aims for primary education

Their world

- Encouraging respect and reciprocity
- Promoting interdependence and sustainability
- Empowering local, national and global citizenship
- Celebrating culture and community

Twelve aims for primary education

Their Education

- Exploring, knowing, understanding and making sense
- Fostering skill
- Exciting the imagination
- Enacting dialogue

Twelve aims for primary education

Cambridge Review Centres

- Bishop Grosseteste University College
- Brighton University School of Education
- Canterbury Christ Church University
- Edge Hill University
- Institute of Education London
- Oxford Brookes
- University of Cambridge
- University of Exeter
- University of Newcastle
- University of Wolverhampton

Excellence is about:

Caring more than others think is wise

Risking more than others think is safe

Dreaming more than other think is practical

Expecting more than others think is possible.

African proverb

Join our network and make these aims a national reality.

www.primaryreview.org.uk twitter: CPRnet