

Wednesday 19th May, 2010
David Shaw Lecture Theatre, Medical School

Brain Ageing and Dementia in Newcastle: past, present and future

An event to mark the contributions of Professors Robert and Elaine Perry

Symposium – Chaired by Professors Raj Kalaria and Ian McKeith

- 1.30pm Welcome from Professor Colin Ingram (IoN, NCL)
- 1.45 Prof Ian McKeith (NCL), Prof of Old Age Psychiatry, “The Newcastle dementia story and the Perrys”
- 2.00 Prof Nicol Ferrier, Professor of Psychiatry, “The MRC Neurochemical Pathology Unit and the Perrys”
- 2.15 Prof Patrick Chinnery (NCL), Prof of Neurogenetics, “Mitochondria and the Brain”
- 2.30 Prof Paul Ince (Sheffield) Prof of Pathology, “MRC CFAS and Newcastle”
- 2.45 Dr Elizabeta Mukaetova-Ladinska (NCL), Senior Lecturer/Consultant in Old Psychiatry, “Midsummer Night Feasting”
- 3.00 Dr Edward Okello (NCL), “Plants and dementia”
- 3.15 Prof Agneta Nordberg (Sweden), Prof of Neurology, “Imaging and Dementia”
- 3.35 Tea
- 4.00 Prof Clive Ballard (KCL, AS), Prof of Old Age Psychiatry, “Neural stem cells and Dementia”
- 4.15 Prof David Burn (NCL), Prof of Movement Disorder Neurology, “A Lion Called Parsley and an Owl Called Sage”
- 4.30 Prof John Hardy (UCL), “From Newcastle to Neurogenetics”
- 4.50 Prof Peter Davies (NY, USA), “Treatment of dementia: past, present and future”
- 5.10pm Prof Tom Kirkwood (NCL), IAH and Concluding Comments

Wine and Cheese reception (Foyer of David Shaw Lecture Theatre)

7.30pm Dinner (by invitation)