Accommodation Services
Online Application Email Help

We recommend when applying for accommodation and registering your email address that you do not use a school or agents email address as you may not be able to access that account during the summer when we will be sending accommodation details by email.

The information below will demonstrate how to change the setting on your email account to ensure that email from Accommodation Services – or any address you choose – is not automatically sent to your junk folder, or worse your trash folder. We have focused on the following email providers but would hope that this guidance can be used on others. Just follow the instructions below to set us up as a safe-sender to avoid missing our emails.

Important: If you apply rules to a folder and then delete the folder or change its name, make sure to update the rules for those folders accordingly. For example, you can’t forward email messages to a deleted folder.
