About the University

Academic excellence meets industry immersion

Newcastle University has a proud tradition of academic excellence, spanning more than 180 years. The new London campus brings this Russell Group education to a major world city for business, finance and commerce.

EXCELLENCE WITH A PURPOSE
Newcastle University is a world-class civic university, committed to excellence with a purpose. The reputation and success of the University are backed up by the high-quality learning and teaching experience that we provide for our students. We are consistently ranked in the top 20 in the UK for student experience and research, and our commitment to education for life is supported by our strong graduate employability record.

QUALITY ASSURANCE
All degrees offered at our London campus meet the same rigorous quality standards as the home campus degree programmes. As with all UK universities, Newcastle University London is monitored by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA), and the quality of our research is assessed through the Research Excellence Framework (REF).

You will be taught by esteemed academics, who are top researchers and have held positions in world-class multinational corporations.

Our degree programmes have been designed by Newcastle University Business School, which holds triple-accreditation from AACSB, AMBA and EQUIS*. This places the school in the top 1% of business schools worldwide.

AN INDUSTRY-IMMERSIVE EDUCATION
London is the world’s leading finance centre, according to a recent study (Global Financial Centres Index 2016, Z/Yen Group). Through our location in the heart of the City of London, the business and finance hub, we have established partnerships with a range of national and international businesses headquartered in the city. This allows us to offer what we like to call an industry-immersive education (see page 10 for more information), enabling students to realise their potential and become tomorrow’s business leaders.

Our London campus also provides a hub for our wider global research and innovation agenda. Academics across the global network utilise the London campus, connecting to industry and government.

NETWORKS AND COMMUNITIES
Newcastle University London students are part of a friendly and supportive learning community. They foster strong working relationships between lecturers and fellow classmates, and join part of the wider Newcastle University community of alumni and partners.

Igniting your success

Ten reasons to study with us

Your journey begins at Newcastle University London: a world-leading, Russell Group university in the heart of a major world financial district. Our industry-immersive education will equip you with the skills you need to get ahead as a global business leader.

1. A leading global university
   We bring the best of Newcastle University to the capital - a top 200 world university (Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2016-2017) with a 90% overall student satisfaction score (National Student Survey 2016).

2. Research-informed teaching
   Our reputation is based on both the quality of our academic work and our research approach, which engages communities, organisations, business and industry. Newcastle University is ranked 16th in the UK in the Research Excellence Framework (REF) 2014.

3. Industry-immersive education
   Begin your career connected. From day one, you’ll learn from academics with industry experience to develop the skills sought after by top global companies. More on page 18

4. Real business projects
   Nothing makes a CV shine like real experience and tangible business success. That’s why our undergraduate and postgraduate students undertake business projects in real-life environments, gaining a valuable insight into the world of work.

5. World-class work experience opportunities
   All of our undergraduate students are entitled to apply for a one year work placement, with shorter placements available to all students whether you are studying on a university preparation, undergraduate or postgraduate programme. It’s a great opportunity to gain first-hand business experience, hone your skills, and make career-boosting connections.
6. High-profile public events
Regular public lectures with leaders of industry help you keep your fingers on the pulse. Always inspiring, always free to attend, past events include lectures themed on the EU referendum, corruption in sports, and Lord Allen of Kensington’s career.

7. The London life
Our campus is a stone’s throw from the Square Mile, where three quarters of US Fortune 500 companies have offices. Meanwhile, Shoreditch - one of London’s most distinctive and culturally rich areas - is only a few minutes away by foot. More on page 14.

8. Small campus in a big city
The prospect of studying in one of the biggest cities in Europe may be a little daunting, but we bring the warm community of Newcastle University to the capital. We believe in personal education, with an intimate, supportive learning community and dedicated support staff. More on page 10.

9. A truly global environment
University is about more than just academia – live and learn alongside friends from the UK and all around the world. You will also connect with tomorrow’s business leaders in one of the most international cities in the world.

10. A global graduate community
Attend regular networking events to connect with Newcastle University graduates, both on and off campus. You can also use the Graduate Connections database to get in touch with alumni from all around the world, who may prove to be useful contacts. Learn more at: http://go.ncl.ac.uk/london/alumni-event.

A warm welcome meets great facilities

The Newcastle University London campus building is a sleek, purpose-built building on Middlesex Street, minutes from Liverpool Street Station.
FIRST-RATE FACILITIES
Our modern, high-quality learning environment is well equipped with study pods for quiet learning, multi-purpose lecture theatres and seminar rooms complete with interactive whiteboards. These flexible spaces support lectures, practical sessions, seminars and tutorials. You’ll also benefit from high-quality IT and e-learning resources.

There are plenty of social spaces too. If you’re feeling hungry, our campus café serves a range of snacks and beverages, and we have a variety of breakout areas including table tennis facilities. There are plenty of student hangouts close to the campus, including cafés and pubs.

LEARNING RESOURCE CENTRE
For all our students, our well-equipped Learning Resource Centre is the place to go for learning materials. These include core textbooks, DVDs, CDs and newspapers, as well as printing, copying and scanning facilities. You’ll also have access to Newcastle University’s wealth of online learning resources, including over half a million e-books and electronic journals. Our experienced and friendly team is on hand to help you make the most of the resources available.

MASTER’S SUITE FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS
The master’s suite is a dedicated area for postgraduate students to complete assignments and relax in between lectures. It’s a pleasant, quiet, independent study space, equipped with IT facilities.

MODERN IT FACILITIES AND E-RESOURCES
You will have full access to on-campus IT facilities and can take advantage of the free wireless internet available. Additional study resources include a virtual learning environment, giving access to reading lists, programme handouts, online assessment and discussions. We also provide a supportive online learning system if English isn’t your first language.

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES ON YOUR DOORSTEP
Living in London gives you convenient additional access to a number of renowned local libraries and institutes, including the Bishopsgate Institute, The Barbican Library and The British Library.
Explore London

Academic excellence meets location

Our London campus offers you the best of both worlds. Ideally situated a short walk from Liverpool Street Station, you will be inspired by studying in a location where the world’s leading financial district meets the fastest growing creative and technology hub.
BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY HUB
London is home to 70 FTSE 100-listed companies and some 400 Fortune 500 companies, which makes it the perfect location for business students. The campus sits on the edge of London’s Square Mile and offers you an excellent base to extend your professional network.

A CREATIVE AND TECHNOLOGY HUB
Shoreditch, at the eastern edge of the City, has become London’s leading media hub, with many art, fashion and media companies having transformed former industrial buildings to accommodate creative people and their businesses.

A few minutes’ walk away, the Old Street roundabout has been renamed ‘Silicon Roundabout’ after start-up tech and digital companies including Google, Yammer, Tweetdeck and Last.fm set up offices here.

VIBRANT CULTURAL SCENE
The campus is located in a vibrant part of London, known for its trendy shops and cultural scene. Stroll around multicultural Whitechapel with its market, galleries and contemporary exhibitions, for a taste of traditional London.

Just beyond the campus are Spitalfields market, Brick Lane and the delights of the East End. Cutting-edge fashion boutiques and independent art galleries, along with some of London’s best food markets, are all on your doorstep.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE
- Hundreds of museums, galleries and music venues, many with free public access.
- Access to an unparalleled range of world-renowned libraries and research institutes.
- A top destination for shopping, with Oxford Street, Covent Garden and the Westfield shopping centres all easily accessible.
- A great choice of restaurants offering cuisines that reflect the city’s multicultural population.
- One of the greenest capitals in the world, with more than 3,000 parks and open spaces.
- The nearby Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is home to a variety of world-class sports facilities.

EASY TO GET AROUND
The campus has excellent public transport links. Liverpool Street Station is a five minute walk from the campus and offers connections across London via the Central, Circle, Hammersmith and City and Metropolitan Underground lines. Within minutes you can be at The Tower of London or St Paul’s Cathedral. Oxford Street and Covent Garden are just 15 minutes away.

From London there are excellent rail connections to the rest of the UK and Europe.

5th best city in the world for students
(QS Best Student Cities 2016)

1st largest global financial centre in the world
(Global Financial Centres Index 2016, Z/Yen Group)
Our London community

The campus sits between the Square Mile and East London, a buzzing area alive with fashionable shops and creative types. When you’re in the coolest bit of town, it’s impossible not to have fun.

FOOD AND DRINK
On a Saturday head to Urban Food Fest, where you will find a Shoreditch car park transformed into a food-focused market. Pump Shoreditch and Box Park are also great options, with the latter housing bars and restaurants in old shipping containers. Meanwhile, students who are lucky enough to book a table at Sushi Samba can experience the best of London’s fine dining scene with panoramic views of the city.

ART: IN AND OUTDOORS
Here, art isn’t just confined to galleries and museums, such as the outstanding Whitechapel Gallery and the interactive Red Gallery. Take a stroll to Shoreditch from Brick Lane on the trail of Instagram-worthy graffiti, and you might even spot a Banksy!

SHOPPING
In London, there are shopping opportunities to suit every taste and budget, from chic boutiques to brilliant bargains. Oxford Street and the Westfield Shopping Centres are perfect for high street shopping, while high-end boutiques include Harrods, Liberty and Selfridges. For vintage, head to Brick Lane or Camden Market.

LONDON: OLD AND NEW
The Square Mile is packed with inspirational modern buildings. Spot the 224 metre tall Leadenhall Building nicknamed the ‘Cheese Grater’ because of its distinctive wedge shape, or Lord Norman Foster’s iconic Gherkin. For a glimpse into the city’s rich history, the Tower of London is just a 20 minute walk away.

SPORT
If you love football, you’ll love Shoreditch Lucozade Powerleague. The 13 outdoor pitches are located opposite Shoreditch High Street overground station. You can join a league, or simply have a kick about with friends.

FILMS
Even going to the cinema can be a unique experience in East London. Rich Mix is an independent arts venue showing everything from the latest blockbuster to the best of world cinema, while Electric Cinema offers a luxurious experience with leather armchairs.

Fancy heading further afield?

Newcastle University London has excellent transport links. The campus is a five-minute walk from Liverpool Street Station, where you can hop on four different underground lines and National Rail services. There are also good bus links to Central and East London. Oxford Street, Covent Garden and Piccadilly Circus are just 15 minutes away, and Newcastle is three hours by train from London King’s Cross. At the weekend it’s easy to explore other parts of the UK, like Brighton, Oxford, even scenic Cornwall. You can also visit other European cities including Paris, Brussels and Lille using the Eurostar.
At Newcastle University London, we’re here to support you in becoming a global business leader of the future. This starts with strong academic foundations, and continues through regular exposure to the real business world.
THE PERFECT LOCATION
Taking advantage of our location on the edge of London’s financial district, we work hand in hand with industry to help you develop an enviable skillset, and the knowledge base top employers demand.

WHY IS AN INDUSTRY-IMMERSIVE EDUCATION SO IMPORTANT?
Top global employers demand more than a theoretical knowledge of business. So to compete in a challenging graduate employment market, you’ll need to stand out. We combine academic theory with opportunities to work on real-life business projects.

By spending time in industry as you study, you will:
• build your professional network
• gain real-life business experience
• benefit from personal advice from business leaders who have reached the top of their respective professions
• put classroom theory into practice in the real world

WHAT TO EXPECT AT NEWCASTLE UNIVERSITY LONDON
The University’s award-winning Careers Service provides a wide range of support and opportunities to engage with industry, integrated into your study experience. In addition, you will gain practical business experience. You will take part in real-life business projects, attend professional masterclasses and public debates, network with alumni based in the capital and potentially undertake a work placement with a leading organisation.

Masterclasses
Top business leaders give weekly masterclasses to our students. Previous speakers have included the former House of Fraser CEO, the former CEO of Granada Group, the director of Daytime and Lifestyle at ITV Content, the former Procter & Gamble global senior executive, a partner at solicitors Gallant Maxwell and the co-founder of Leaderscape.

Find out more about our masterclasses at: www.ncl.ac.uk/london/industry-links/masterclasses

“I have recently been offered a permanent position within Capita. It’s really great that Newcastle University London creates the circumstances within which you can showcase your strengths in front of the right people and find a way in to the hidden job market.”

Ania, Poland

2016 Graduated with MSc International Business Management from Newcastle University London
Public debate series
Regular public lectures help you stay well-informed. They are free to attend, and previous topics have been themed around the EU referendum, corruption in sports and Lord Allen of Kensington’s career.

Alumni events
Many Newcastle University graduates now occupy senior roles and work across London. We hold regular networking events and welcome successful professionals to meet our current students. Connecting with alumni is a great way to potentially further your career.

Work placements and internships
Supplement your studies and gain invaluable real-world experience by taking part in a year-long placement as part of your undergraduate degree. If a shorter placement is more practical, options include a three-month internship - sponsored by Santander - and an exciting range of shorter CV-enhancing placements. For postgraduate students there is the option to undertake a practical based dissertation in a real-life work environment.

Advisory Board
A number of business leaders sit on our Advisory Board to make sure our strategic direction - and the courses we offer - are perfectly aligned with the needs and ambitions of the global business community. Companies represented include: RWE Supply & Trading, Avalon, Irwin Mitchell LLP, Capita Civil Service Learning, Barlow Wells, AES International and Newton Euro.

Guest lectures
Lectures and seminars include presentations from leading industry figures. For example, guest lecturers on the MSc International Business Management in 2015-16 included:

- the group diversity and inclusion strategy lead at Co-Op, previously at AstraZeneca
- a campaigns, policy and public affairs expert and consultant, with extensive experience for national charities

Practical classroom projects
Throughout your studies, you’ll enjoy many opportunities to prove and improve your management, strategic and decision-making skills.

- Group projects: a great way to showcase soft skills, as you put theory to work in a small team. Past student projects have included a live challenge at Spitalfields market, and a business simulation in which students acted as managers of an international bicycle company making strategic decisions based on market demographics. London students have previously competed with students at the Newcastle campus on this project.

- Individual assignments: a chance to let your personal abilities really shine, working on a practical project set by well-known businesses. Previous students have, for example, written case studies on well-known organisations such as Marco Pierre White and Zaha Hadid Architects.
CAREERS AND EMPLOYABILITY SUPPORT FOR DEGREE STUDENTS

Newcastle graduates have an excellent reputation among recruiters. Throughout your degree programme at Newcastle University London you will benefit from our award-winning careers support, excellent links with industry leaders, and an expert support and funding service for graduates starting a business.

Careers Service

Newcastle University’s Careers Service has five QS Stars for employability. Whether you are seeking a graduate career, starting a business or embarking on further study, they will offer expert advice and support to help you take the next step.

Gain a Global Advantage

You will have the option to attend ‘Gain a Global Advantage’ day on the University’s campus in Newcastle. It is an afternoon of inspiring talks, interactive workshops and networking with prestigious employers – all with a global focus.

Rise Up service

You will have access to our Rise Up service, which offers guidance and funding to graduates starting a business. Recent successes include MediWikis, which was named best postgraduate venture in the Santander Universities Enterprise Awards.

Find out more at: www.ncl.ac.uk/careers/riseup

Job opportunities and employer links

Our Careers Service has links with many top graduate employers based in the UK and globally. Over 2,000 employers use the University’s vacancies database each year to advertise graduate jobs, work experience, internships and placements.

International students

We also provide specific information for international students on finding a job in the UK and internationally. Where your visa permits it, the Careers Service will help you to find part-time work alongside your studies.
Your experience goes beyond the classroom

While the main reason for coming to London is to study, getting involved in non-academic activities will help you adjust to student life and allow you to develop a network of friends and make the most of your time in the capital.
NEWCASTLE UNIVERSITY LONDON STUDENTS’ UNION
The Students’ Union (NUSU) is here to help you connect with fellow students outside the classroom. Make the most of your campus life, keep up your old hobbies and interests and explore new ones. NUSU is your link to a wide range of activities in one of the world’s most exciting cities.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON STUDENTS CENTRAL
You will also have the opportunity to become a member of Student Central. This is a Students’ Union for students across the 27 institutions that make up the University of London. Membership gives you access to a range of societies, sports and events, and allows you to connect with the wider London student population. For more information, visit www.studentcentral.london

SOCIAL PROGRAMME
We also run social events throughout the year to help you make the most of the local area. Join in with events including:

- day trips to historic locations such as Hampton Court or enjoy a day at the beach in Brighton
- fun socials, including ice skating and table tennis tournaments
- international food events, such as curry nights and Chinese New Year celebrations

SPORT
If you enjoy sport - or would like to get more active - you’ll love living in London. The Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is just three Underground stops from campus. Follow in the footsteps of Olympians at facilities including the Lee Valley Hockey and Tennis Centre, Lee Valley VeloPark and the London Aquatics Centre.

You can also join the football club and play on the 5 a-side pitches in Shoreditch. Closer still are our on-campus facilities. There is a Fitness First gym in the basement, plus table tennis tables for a fun break between seminars and lectures.

“As Students’ Union Co-ordinator, I organise events, and provide help with setting up societies. The Students’ Union is here to make sure you have a great time while studying, as well as to offer advice and support.”

Bintu Foday Kemokai, Students’ Union Co-ordinator
STUDENT SUPPORT
Whether it's your first time living away from home, you're joining us from a different country or you're returning to education from the world of work, we offer a full suite of support services to help you take control of your education and make the most of your university experience.

The Welcome Desk
The Welcome Desk is the hub of campus activity, and is your first port of call for accessing our support services. Throughout the year, our friendly Student Services team is on-hand to provide help and advice on all aspects of student life, including academic support, student welfare, accommodation and finance, as well as visa and immigration advice for international students.

The Welcome Desk is open early in the morning until the evening from Monday to Saturday. You will also be given a telephone number to be used in the unlikely event of an emergency.

Freshers’ Week
During Freshers’ Week, you're invited to take part in a full orientation programme. It’s designed to help you settle in before your course starts and includes:

- a formal welcome to the University
- an introduction to your lecturers and/or teachers
- a tour of the learning and teaching facilities and an optional local area tour
- help and advice on topics such as how to register at a local doctor’s surgery or open a bank account for university preparation and undergraduate students
- an information fair for university preparation, undergraduate and postgraduate students
- British Residence Permit collection sessions for international students
- lots of fun social events

Academic support
Tutors and peer mentors provide support from an academic perspective. You’ll be assigned a personal tutor to help you with academic development. You can turn to your tutor for practical advice and guidance on issues such as preparing for exams and helping to signpost relevant careers and skills development provision. You'll be introduced during your first week of studies, and will be invited to meet regularly:

- International Foundation students meet with their personal tutor once a term.
- Students on all other courses meet with their personal tutor at least twice a semester, then once per semester thereafter.

Your attendance
It is important that you attend all your classes, because missing them will impact on your progress and may also affect your student visa. We carefully monitor attendance and if there is an issue we will work with you to find a solution and get you back into class as soon as possible.

Support for under 18s
Studying overseas is a big step for anyone, but even more so for younger students. If you are under 18 we will meet you at the airport and check in on you each day at the student residence where you will live.

For more information on our policies, visit: www.intostudy.com/newcastle-london/terms

Multifaith provision
London is a cosmopolitan city with facilities for all major religions. The Student Services team can provide information on nearby places of worship.

Ongoing English language support
If you need additional support with developing your English language skills, free, in-sessional English classes are available.
“Our friendly student services team is committed to helping you settle in and make the most of your experience here in London. They will provide you with practical assistance, and will encourage you to get involved in social events and community activities. Our full-time Welfare Officer is on hand to help students through any difficult times.”

Vikki Hedges, Student Services Manager
Accommodation

A place to call home

Whether you’re leaving home for the first time or are a postgraduate student looking for somewhere quieter, we offer a range of safe, high-quality accommodation to suit every lifestyle.

MODULE DESCRIPTIONS
Detailed descriptions of the core and specialist modules for the International Foundation are below.

English for Academic Purposes
This module is designed to help you develop your skills and confidence in academic English. Four key skill areas are covered: reading, writing, listening, and speaking, and all are developed in an integrated and task-oriented way. The module will encourage you to take responsibility for your learning and a lot of emphasis is placed on private study, student research, student-led presentations, seminar discussions, e-learning and group work.

Study Skills and Project
This module is designed to help you adjust to the specific demands and expectations of UK higher education. The skills covered will include: personal and time organisation; library and information skills; using and interpreting data; team-working skills; problem-solving skills; examination and revision techniques; presentation skills; and avoiding plagiarism. You will also have workshop sessions in core ICT skills including the use of Word, Excel, PowerPoint, email, and web-based learning systems.

Introduction to Accounting
This module aims to prepare you for the world of business and accounting by giving you opportunities to develop knowledge and skills in accounting and the mathematics needed for these disciplines. Through a mixture of lecture delivery and small group seminar interaction, you will be guided towards understanding practical topics in the study of accounting.

Introduction to the Study of Business
This module will help you understand key features of business in the UK. You are introduced to many aspects of business in preparation for a range of business degrees. Topics covered include motivation, management and leadership, business classifications, business funding in the UK, scrutiny of corporate annual reports and accounts, how economic factors affect business, marketing, and current themes in business. You will be taught in lectures, seminars and tutorials, and will be assessed via examinations and coursework.

Maths for Business
The module covers mathematical and statistical techniques that have applications in business and in economics. The programme initially reinforces algebra skills and then builds on these in the areas of equation handling and graphing techniques. Differentiation is introduced as a technique for finding the slope and turning points of a curve. You will develop skills in the area of handling, summarising and representing data, and become familiar with probability as a concept. The concept of correlation is also introduced and developed to establish relationships between variables.

Detailed descriptions of the core modules for the International Year One programme are below.

Accounting and Finance
This module provides an introduction to key concepts, terminology and knowledge in accounting and finance to facilitate career development in business rather than to lead to further accounting studies. You will learn to analyse and interpret financial statements, and prepare financial and management accounting reports. The module is delivered through formal lectures which enable the communication of key concepts and ideas, while seminars provide you with opportunities to discuss concepts and ideas, and to develop analytical skills.

Advanced Business English
The overall aim of this module is to develop English language proficiency within the specific context of business. The module will provide the realistic blend of learning related to the real-world business environment and the context of the academic study of business. In particular, the module aims to develop all four language skills (reading, writing, speaking and listening) within relevant and contemporary business contexts. The module will expose you to an appropriate range of spoken and written text types and raise awareness of lexical, grammatical, discourse and phonological features of language most relevant to the current business environment.

English for Academic Purposes
This module focuses on academic writing and the development of critical reading skills as part of the preparation stage for exam and assignment writing. Techniques for the integration and synthesis of ideas of others into your own work are covered. The module uses current assignment questions from the other International Year One modules as a platform for developing the skills required. Spoken English and listening skills are developed by the extensive use of discussion tasks in pairs and group work.

Management and Organisation
This module will provide you with an introduction to the main principles of management theory and an understanding of the development of theory in organisational behaviour and its relation to management within organisations. You will learn about different organisational structures and designs, organisational cultures, and the decision-making process within an organisation. The module also addresses human resource management topics such as organisational motivation, leadership, teamwork and managing change in the workplace.

Marketing
Through this module, you will develop an understanding of the core concepts of marketing theory and an ability to apply them to case studies. Topics include market research, marketing strategy, marketing planning and the marketing mix, and looking at competition and the environment. A key part of the module assessment involves working as part of a group to research, plan and write a strategic marketing plan for a new product idea.

Quantitative Methods
This module offers an introduction to basic statistical concepts and methods of data analysis which are commonly used by businesses to reduce uncertainty when making decisions. The module covers the different ways in which data can be collected, summarised and analysed, and how to present that information to ensure clear understanding. You will consider probability theory as well as common probability distributions and topics such as hypothesis testing, forecasting, resource allocation, market research and quality control. There is a strong practical element to this module and you will become familiar with standard statistical packages.

MODULE DESCRIPTIONS

Detailed descriptions of the modules for the Graduate Diploma are below.

1. English for Academic Purposes
   This module aims to develop all your English skills so you are ready for postgraduate study. The ability to write essays at this level is the most important focus and you will have guidance in all aspects of academic writing including critical reading, synthesis of sources, text-level organisation and academic written style. All classes are delivered using pair and group work and learning is achieved with the use of problem-solving enquiry tasks. Learner independence is a priority, and focused support helps develop this.

2. Business and Management
   This module aims to develop an understanding and appreciation of the international business environment, the implications of changes in the business environment for businesses and managers, and the need to make appropriate strategic decisions. The syllabus will also ensure coverage of topics that provide a foundation to Graduate Diploma students for their postgraduate programmes. The module is delivered through lectures that introduce material and explore theories and concepts while seminars or small group teaching sessions are used to critically evaluate key issues within topics and develop skills through discussion, presentation and set tasks.

3. Data Analysis for Business
   This module focuses on the use of published company accounts. The aim of the module is to develop an understanding of what the data in a company’s accounts means, how to interpret that data, and how to use it to either judge the financial performance of a firm, or compare the performance of one firm with another. You will also learn how to assess two different proposed projects or investments and recommend one as the best project. The module is delivered through lectures, which introduce material and explore theories and concepts, while seminars or small group teaching sessions are used to critically evaluate key issues within topics and develop skills through discussion, presentation and set tasks.

4. Economics
   The module will focus on the distinction between microeconomics and macroeconomics and the underlying basic economic problem of scarcity. You will learn about the market system, the laws of supply and demand and how this determines the prices and the quantities that are traded through the concept of elasticity. By looking at the wider economic environment, you will learn about major schools of thought on macroeconomics issues and the relationship between economic growth and factors such as national income, inflation, unemployment, and economic management through monetary and fiscal policies.

5. Study and Research Skills
   This module has been designed to help you make the transition to postgraduate study by ensuring that you develop the academic skills required and also undergo the intellectual development needed. It is through exposure to the expectations of postgraduate study and continued practice, feedback and reflection that your skills will develop. The content of the module will centre around the preparation for, and writing of, an extended academic essay of around 5,000 words. The process will be very similar to that for longer pieces of work that you will encounter at postgraduate level. The module will draw on and support the ideas explored in English for Academic Purposes and other modules across the Graduate Diploma.

EUS: English for University Study
Newcastle University London is delighted to introduce a range of four-year programmes combining an International Foundation Year with a complete undergraduate degree – allowing you to complete your studies in a single programme.

WHAT IS AN INTEGRATED UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE?
- A foundation year and an undergraduate degree in one programme.
- Improve your English language skills.
- Study a range of business-related modules that provide a foundation for further specialist study.
- Develop the necessary study and research skills to ease your transition to the British education system.

PROGRAMME BENEFITS
- A university-validated programme.
- A single programme of study, incorporating a university preparation year.
- One visa required for the full duration of study.
- A degree level programme - meaning we can accept a wide range of English language tests and qualifications for admission. For more information, visit: www.ncl.ac.uk/international/courses/language

* Subject to final university approval.
ACADEMIC SUPPORT
Throughout Year 1 of your programme and the remainder of your undergraduate studies you will receive advice and feedback from your teachers during seminars and tutorials. You will have regular one-to-one tutorial meetings with your personal tutor where you will discuss your achievements, progress and plan for effective future study. They will be able to answer any questions and provide guidance, to ensure your academic success.
Assessment will be through examinations and coursework including: written assignments, practical exercises, group and individual research projects, portfolios, presentations and problem-solving exercises.

CONTINUING YOUR STUDIES
In order to progress from Year 1 to Year 2 you must achieve a minimum of 65% overall in Year 1 of the International Business Management and International Marketing and Management programme, or you must achieve a minimum of 70% overall in Year 1 of the Accounting and Finance programme. You must also achieve a minimum of 60% for the Mathematics module for progression in the International Business Management and International Marketing and Management programmes, or you must achieve a minimum of 65% for progression in the Accounting and Finance Programme. Finally, for all three Integrated Programmes you must achieve a minimum of 65% overall (with a minimum of 55% in reading, writing, listening and speaking) in the English for Academic Purposes module.

Study in London for a quality-assured Newcastle University degree with professional accreditations

Optional work placement can boost your CV and equip you with valuable industry experience

Newcastle University is ranked in the Top 20 in the UK for Accounting and Finance (The Times and Sunday Times University Guide 2017 and The Complete University Guide 2017)

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW
This programme provides a firm foundation in accounting and finance. You’ll learn a balance of academic theory and real-life problem-solving skills that will be attractive to a wide range of employers.

PROFESSIONAL ACCREDITATION
This degree is accredited by the three major professional accounting associations, and provides exemptions from some professional examinations: Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (9 papers), Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (11 papers), Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (7 papers).

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES
Newcastle University enjoys a good reputation for producing highly employable graduates. Many of our graduates go on to train as chartered accountants. However, this degree can also lead to a wide choice of other career options, such as finance or general management. One in four CEOs of FTSE 100 companies are qualified chartered accountants (Robert Half FTSE 100 CEO Tracker 2015).
WHAT WILL I STUDY?
Our degrees are divided into Stages. Each Stage lasts for an academic year and you need to complete modules totalling 120 credits by the end of each Stage.

Please be aware that programme modules do change and therefore may differ for your year of entry. For detailed descriptions of modules, please visit: www.ncl.ac.uk/undergraduate/degrees/n402/modules

Improving your English

We understand that for many international students, English is not your first language, and you may be worried about how you will cope with studying in a different language. To help you to continue to improve your language skills, we offer a range of courses and support services – some of which you can access even before you arrive in the UK.

BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

INTO Get Ready for English
If your offer is conditional on meeting the minimum English language requirements, you will automatically be invited to enrol on our INTO Get Ready for English course.

It is a free, tutored online course that helps you practise and improve your English in preparation for studying abroad. You can take part in the whole course or choose from particular activities that will be of most benefit.

- Get expert, personalised feedback from our UK-based tutors.
- Gain a better understanding of your current level in listening, speaking, reading and writing.
- Study flexibly in your own time.

To find out more, visit: www.intostudy.com/get-ready-for-english

ONCE YOU ARE HERE

Online support
Taking part in GOLD, our free online tutoring module, may be recommended to continue to help you to improve your English. You can study up to seven hours per week, with two ‘live’ classes each week. Studying online gives you the flexibility to choose when you want to study, and if you need any help, you can contact your online tutor.

Monitoring your progress
To help monitor your progress and ensure you stay on track, you will be assessed both on arrival and throughout your studies. Working in partnership with Cambridge English Language Assessment, part of the University of Cambridge, we have produced a standardised assessment for students.

Cambridge is recognised as the world leader in the field of language assessment, providing you with an internationally recognised qualification.
English for University Study

Our enhanced English for University Study course provides intensive preparation for students intending to join a pre-university academic programme or university degree. It is perfect for students who intend to make more rapid progress in their language and academic skills.

WHAT IS ENGLISH FOR UNIVERSITY STUDY?
You will focus on increasing your ability in core reading, writing, speaking and listening skills, as well as developing your vocabulary. Through practising what you have learned in class, you will become more fluent and confident in using English.

Teaching includes both face-to-face and online learning. You will be taught by qualified English language professionals, and throughout the course you will undertake regular practice tests. This ensures you develop the skills and confidence required to excel in end of term examination.

Pre-sessional English

The Pre-sessional English course provides short and intensive preparation in academic English for students who are already academically qualified and are due to start an undergraduate or postgraduate degree at Newcastle University London in September 2017.

WHAT IS THE PRE-SESSIONAL ENGLISH COURSE?
• A programme designed to improve your English language skills to the level required by your chosen degree.
• Teaching and assessments tailored to the requirements of university study.
• Learn with students studying the same, or similar subjects at university.
• Focus on content-specific vocabulary, grammar, style and structure.
• Attend lectures from specialists on topics relevant to your future studies.
• Practise speaking English on specific topics related to your degree programme.
• Adapt to living and studying in the UK prior to beginning your degree studies.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?
This 20-hour per week course is suitable for you if you are academically qualified, hold an offer from Newcastle University London, and need to improve your English language level before starting a degree programme.

Depending on your current language level and degree programme requirements, you will be required to study either a 10-week (June to September) or six-week (July to September) course.

WHAT IS SPECIAL ABOUT THIS COURSE?
• Provides contextual study skills to help you adjust to the culture of a UK university.
• Enables you to adjust to the demands, challenges and expectations of UK higher education and culture.
• Teaches you how to give presentations on different areas of academic interest.
• Provides you with a short period of time to adapt to living and studying in the UK prior to beginning your academic studies.

ASSESSMENT
In order to successfully complete the Pre-sessional course, you must meet the following criteria:
• attendance on course (minimum 90%)
• completion of a satisfactory course assignment and final presentation
• successful completion of all four components of the final assessment, in reading, writing, listening and speaking
• achievement of no less than the equivalent of IELTS 5.5 in the internal assessment of the individual elements of reading, writing, speaking and listening.

See Important Note on Newcastle University London English Language Policy, right.

COURSE OUTCOMES
Assuming you have already met the University’s academic entry requirements and any other outstanding conditions, achieving the level of performance required in the Pre-sessional English course to fulfil the conditions of your offer will allow you to progress to your university course, without needing to retake the IELTS test.

IMPORTANT NOTE
Newcastle University London English Language Policy
In line with UK government (the Home Office) regulations, all students seeking admission to Newcastle University London must be competent in English language. For qualifications at NQF level 6 (degree level) or above this must be at a minimum of level B2 on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) in each of the four components of language learning (reading, writing, listening and speaking). IELTS 5.5 is deemed to demonstrate B2 level competence.

Under no circumstances will a student with an overall level of English language below IELTS 5.5, or with a reading, writing, speaking or listening score below IELTS 5.5, be given admission to a full degree programme at Newcastle University London.

Scholarships for talented students

“The scholarship has directly assisted me and has put me on a strong career pathway. I am extremely grateful.”

Gelske, Canada

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS
We are committed to helping you achieve your study goals. Each year we offer a range of partial scholarships for talented students to help towards their tuition fees. The scholarships range from merit based scholarships for undergraduate and postgraduate students, to progression scholarships for pathway students and fee discounts for alumni and the family of previous students.

WHO CAN APPLY?
If you have a strong academic record, you will have the opportunity to apply for a scholarship, which provides financial support to reduce your tuition fees. Each application is considered with great care, with scholarships awarded on individual academic merit.

* Students on programmes of study lasting more than one year should be aware that tuition fees are subject to an annual revision and typically increase by up to 5% per annum. We benchmark tuition fees against sector comparators and give students as much notice as possible of annual fee increases. If you spend a year on placement or are studying abroad as part of your degree, you may pay a reduced fee for that year.

ACCOMMODATION NOTES

The prices for both residential and homestay accommodation cover tuition periods only. If your course or study plan spans a vacation period, the accommodation must be paid for during the vacation period as well. Homestay accommodation is only available during vacations by special request and is not guaranteed. A supplement may be payable over the two-week Christmas period. If you wish to leave your belongings with the host family during a vacation period, the full weekly amount will be payable. Please see the terms and conditions at www.intostudy.com/newcastle-london/terms for information regarding the availability of residential accommodation over the Christmas period for under 18 students.

WEEKLY ACCOMMODATION PRICES

These prices will apply for additional weeks e.g. during holidays.

UNIPLAN INSURANCE

Uniplan Insurance is a comprehensive insurance policy prepared especially for international students in the UK to cover loss of personal possessions as well as travel, health and medical claims.

Full travel, health and medical insurance is mandatory for all international students studying any programme at Newcastle University London and for European students studying a university preparation or English language course. Uniplan Insurance will automatically be added to your programme fees unless you show that suitable alternative cover has been provided. We strongly recommend however that all students have insurance. Please contact newcastlelondon@ncl.ac.uk for further information about suitable insurance packages.

Newcastle University London is an appointed representative of Endsleigh Insurance Services Ltd which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. This can be checked on the Financial Services Register by visiting its website at: www.fca.org.uk/register
