Using Blackboard VLE

The teaching on this programme will be delivered entirely using software called Blackboard. Blackboard is one of many Virtual Learning Environments (VLE) used to teach over the Internet. This document will show you how to log onto Blackboard to access your induction material.

Please note you will need an up to date web browser to access Blackboard – (The current version of Blackboard is not supported with Internet Explorer 7 or older)

In order to log into Blackboard, you will need to be in receipt of an email with your university logins, you should receive these via your university email once you have registered.

Logging into Blackboard for the first time

1. Using your Internet browser, enter the following URL: http://blackboard.ncl.ac.uk/

(You can also access Blackboard via the student homepage from www.ncl.ac.uk)

You will come to this page:
