Raising the Bar: Recruitment and Selection of Academic Heads

Received a report from Mrs Veryan Johnston, Executive Director of Human Resources, on behalf of Executive Board.

[Circulated with the agenda as Document B. Copy filed in the Minute Book.]
[Report of appointments tabled at the meeting. Copy filed in the Minute Book].

Noted that:

1. The process for the recruitment and selection of Heads of Academic Unit was agreed by Senate, at its meeting on 20 November 2013. At the meeting of Senate on 20 May 2014, some concerns were raised with regard to this process, and it was resolved that Executive Board would consider the issues raised for this matter to be considered at a future meeting of Senate.

2. A report detailing the recruitment and selection of Heads of Academic Units which have been appointed in the previous 12 months, was tabled at the meeting.

3. At the previous meeting of Senate, Professor Brooks raised concern that staff members within the academic unit were not able to comment or contribute toward the recruitment process for the appointment of a Head of Academic Unit, and that a lack of transparency in the recruitment and selection process could be damaging to the academic unit.

4. There is a necessity for confidentiality during the recruitment process for external applicants who often do not wish their home institutions to be aware that they have applied to another institution at the initial stage. This level of confidentiality is also applied to internal applicants.

5. That Executive Board proposed changes to the recruitment process to ensure more involvement by the academic unit whilst respecting the confidentiality issues.

Resolved that Senate approve the recommendations in the report to revise the policy.

81. VICE-CHANCELLOR’S BUSINESS
