An overview of Newcastle University’s presence in Singapore and Malaysia

Professor Ella Ritchie
14/10/2013
NUMed Malaysia facts and figures:

Located in EduCity, part of the Iskandar Development Region of South Johor, Malaysia.

Formally opened in November 2011, originally offering a Newcastle University MB BS degree programme.

Now home to 365 students and 96 staff, offering MB BS, and BSc Hons in Biomedical Sciences.

In 2014 it is anticipated that a Foundation Certificate in Medicine, Biological and Biomedical Sciences will be introduced at NUMed.
Malaysia

Arial view of the NUMed Campus

View to Bell’s Court with the International Student Village to the right
Malaysia

Campus Exterior
Malaysia

Bell’s Court – Administration Building
with replica of the iconic arches

Board Room with teleconferencing facilities
The Learning Resources Centre
Malaysia

Iskandar Demonstration Theatre

One of two 200 seat lecture theatres
Malaysia

IT Cluster

Seminar room

Wet Lab
Malaysia

Clinical Skills Lab

Anatomy Laboratory
NUIS facts and figures:

NUIS offers the following degree programmes:

• Chemical Engineering
• Electrical Power Engineering
• Food and Human Nutrition
• Marine Engineering, Offshore Engineering and Naval Architecture
• Mechanical Design and Manufacturing Engineering

More than 300 students enrol every academic year

In 2014 SIT will open five new buildings that will provide much improved facilities for Newcastle students and staff.
Singapore

Ngee Ann Polytechnic

Nanyang Polytechnic
Singapore

Campus Exterior - Ngee Ann Polytechnic

Lecture Theatre - Ngee Ann Polytechnic
Singapore

Ngee Ann Polytechnic
Singapore

Ngee Ann Polytechnic Skills Lab
Singapore

Nanyang Polytechnic
Singapore

Nanyang Polytechnic
Skills Lab
Singapore

SIT New Buildings

SIT@NP  SIT@NYP