Tenancy

The term of your tenancy
Your tenancy is for a fixed term period. This means that there is no notice period in your agreement and you will not be released from your contract. Equally the University cannot terminate your agreement during the period of the tenancy, other than in a breach of one or more of the conditions of the tenancy.

Council tax
At present full time students receive exemption from Council Tax. It is important to remember that the University will take no liability whatsoever for the council tax. It is your responsibility to apply online for your Council Tax Exemption Certificate; go to: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/student-resources/PGR/changes/counciltax.htm and follow the instructions.

Deposits
You have paid a deposit to cover the University against unreasonable damage to the property. The deposit is held until the end of the tenancy. When the tenancy ends, a final inspection is carried out by staff from the Accommodation Service who will check the original inventory against the final condition of the property. The main reasons for withholding all or part of the deposits are:

- Damage to the property
- Lack of cleaning or leaving rubbish which subsequently has to be removed
- Failure to return keys on time

If there are no repairs or cleaning charges you can expect a full refund, however, if the property is not cleaned thoroughly or damage has occurred, the costs will be held against the damage deposit. You will be charged individually for damage caused/ required cleaning in your bedroom and all occupants will be charged for any damage caused/ required cleaning to communal areas (to include areas within the apartment and also communal areas within the building) unless an individual claims personal responsibility. The deposit refund is normally made within 14 working days of the end of the tenancy, provided there are no deductions. In cases where contractors are used to rectify damage, or carry out required cleaning the refund of the deposit cannot be made until all invoices have been received and appropriate deductions made.

Guests
Guests are allowed to stay overnight on a maximum of two nights in any seven day period.

Cleaning
Your flat and bedroom should be cleaned regularly during your occupation. Here are some useful tips.

- Clean the oven and hob after each use and the cooker extractor hood on a regular basis
- Defrost and clean the fridge and freezer when required
- Clean the toilet, wash hand basin, shower cubicle and tiling regularly.
- Do not allow hair to clog up the hand basin and shower cubicle waste.
- Please do not wash food waste down the sink as this will cause a blockage.
- Rubbish and recycling should be put out on a regular basis.
- Clean the filter on your washing machine on a regular basis (see instruction manual for further details).

Painting and decorating
We ask that you do not carry out any painting or decorating to the flat or your bedroom under any circumstances.

Posters
Please do not hang any posters or pictures on the walls whatsoever; this includes the use of blue/white tac, sellotape, pins, hooks etc. Should there be any damage to the decoration, a charge will occur.

Waste and recycling bins are provided in the compounds at the front of Albion House and at the side of Barker House. Recycling bins are for cardboard, paper, tins, cans, plastic etc. with separate bins for glass. Bins are also available for general waste. For further information, please refer to the University’s ‘Environment Guide’ available at: www.ncl.ac.uk/estates/ourcampus/

Communal corridors, stairwells, lift entrance and reception areas will be cleaned weekly, by a contracted cleaning company.
Health and safety

Accommodation and Hospitality Services has a local ‘Health and Safety Policy’ which is supplementary to the University Statement on Policy, Organisation and General Safety Arrangements.

Please maintain a safe environment at all times for University staff and contractors who may have to enter your accommodation, e.g. cables to personal electrical equipment should be safe and not pose a trip hazard. You are encouraged to report any health and safety issues to your reception for investigation.

All accidents, incidents and near misses should be reported to reception as soon as possible so a report can be completed and the cause investigated.

Emergency procedures

Immediate danger

If you or someone else are in immediate danger, you should phone 999 to contact the Police, Fire or Ambulance Services, and then contact your reception. If reception is closed contact Estate Security Service on (0191) 208 6817.

The University has documented procedures, including an incident plan for dealing with events such as fire, gas leak, bomb alert, outbreak of disease or major breakdown of services and equipment. Details are available at reception.

Welfare support, financial advice and counselling

Accommodation Staff are responsible for the general welfare and pastoral care of students and are contactable via reception. Further resources are available – please see a list of where to go for assistance on page 27.

Firearms

Firearms, including air rifles, pistols and replicas, and any other sporting weapon (and any type of ammunition) are prohibited in our accommodation.

GP registration

On your first week of arrival it is strongly recommended that you register with a local GP. Further details are available from the ‘Action in the Event of an Emergency’ notice displayed on the back of your bedroom door.

If you are an international student, more information about health care, costs and services provided is available at www.ncl.ac.uk/students/wellbeing/medical/health-information-for-international-students.htm

To find details of all local GP practices, their location and the services they provide, refer to the GP Student Handbook available at www.ncl.ac.uk/students/wellbeing/medical/doctor_dental.htm

Fire safety

Our fire safety systems are maintained, regularly tested and inspected in accordance with regulations relating to each particular piece of equipment, building type and appropriate British Standards. Systems include: fire detection, fire-fighting equipment, emergency lighting, fire door integrity including closures and emergency escape ironmongery, such as push bars. The design and detail of our fire systems is determined in accordance with a fire safety risk assessment and in consultation with Tyne and Wear Fire Authority. The fire alarm system is monitored by Southern Monitoring Services who will contact the fire brigade should the alarm be activated.

On your arrival it is important that you read the ‘Fire Action’ notice displayed within your accommodation and familiarise yourself with the locations of fire-fighting equipment, signed escape routes, fire exits and your designated assembly point. A fire extinguisher and fire blanket are located in the kitchen area. Kitchens in our accommodation are fitted with heat detectors, with smoke detectors in bedrooms, corridors and stair areas. These smoke/heat detectors must not be covered under any circumstances.

Wear Fire Authority. The fire alarm system is supplementary to the University Statement on Policy, Organisation and General Safety Arrangements. The fire alarm is tested and recorded on a weekly basis at pre-arranged times by staff. The date and time of the test will be displayed on the notice board in the reception area.

A full drill/evacuation will be held once in each of the first two terms it is essential that all tenants who are in the building at the time of the drill evacuate via the staircase and gather at the designated assembly point. Any tenant failing to adhere may be subject to a disciplinary fine. The dedicated fire exit door at the rear of the building should only be used in genuine emergencies or during a fire drill and must be kept clear at all times.

Heat/smoke detectors and automatic door closers will be tested on each termly inspection visit.

If you have a disability (including a temporary disability) during your period of residence, which could affect your safety in the event of fire or other emergency, you should notify a member of the Accommodation staff as soon as possible. An assessment can be undertaken and any specific arrangements put in place, e.g. a Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan, if necessary.

It is extremely dangerous and is regarded as a serious criminal offence to interfere with any fire systems or fire-fighting equipment in place, except in an emergency. Anyone found responsible for doing so, or whose carelessness, negligence or irresponsible behaviour leads to a fire alarm activation or the Fire Brigade attending, will be subject to the University’s ‘Student Disciplinary Procedure’, which will include a fine and may lead to the accommodation contract being terminated.

A copy of the University’s ‘Student Disciplinary Procedure’ is available at: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/Regulations/Procedures/disciplinary/

Misuse of substances

We are committed to the active promotion of healthy lifestyles for students. Our policy aims to inform, educate and support you should the misuse of substances (illegal substances and alcohol) affect you whilst living in our accommodation. A copy of our ‘Alcohol and Drugs Misuse Policy’ is available at the following link: www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/useful-information/#policies

You should not commit any activity which will, or might, lead to a criminal offence. Not to engage in misuse of substances, not to expose other Tenants’ to such use in shared accommodation and not to expose the Superior Landlord or University to reputational and legal risks concerning such substance use. If illegal substance use is established this could result in the termination of the Accommodation Tenancy Agreement of any Tenant in University Managed Accommodation. This includes having illegal substances on their person or in their Accommodation, using illegal substances or being found to be supplying illegal substances and using the Accommodation for this purpose.

The University policy extends to the use of ‘legal’ highs such as nitrous oxide, which are not permitted and if found on site, will be confiscated immediately.

It should be noted that this applies if the person(s) responsible are guests of, or invited to the Accommodation, by the Tenant.

Alcohol awareness and safe drinking

Newcastle University is very keen to promote an environment where students enjoy themselves socially, whilst at the same time, being aware of drinking “safely” to minimise any personal risk and the chance of causing anti-social behaviour to others.

Please read the following link: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/Regulations/Procedures/disciplinary/alcoholawareness.htm

This provides drink aware tools, safe drinking / personal safety advice and important information about Newcastle University’s Disciplinary action against any anti-social behaviour.

Newcastle University receives immediate reports from Northumbria Police following incidents of antisocial behaviour & we take all reports seriously and fully investigate them. From past cases, we know that the majority of inconsiderate and unacceptable behaviour by students living in the community are the result of excessive alcohol consumption.

Please click on: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/student-resources/community/ to ensure you understand the consequences of drunken /anti-social behaviour.

Smoking

Smoking (including the use of e-cigarettes) is prohibited in all parts of Albion House and Barker House. It is only permitted in the external designated smoking areas outside of the buildings. Fines will be imposed if tenants breach this restriction including smoking whilst leaning out of the window. It is essential that this is adhered to in order to ensure the safety of all tenants.

A copy of the University’s ‘No Smoking Policy’ is available at: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/Regulations/SPS/nosmoking.htm

Utilities

Except in the case of emergencies or essential maintenance, electricity, gas and water supplies will be maintained and tested in accordance with statutory standards and without interruption.

Electrical

New equipment is installed and existing equipment maintained to Institute of Electrical Engineers (IEE) Regulations. Lighting is provided in accordance with Chartered Institute of Building Services Engineers (CIBSE) recommendations.

The electrical supply consists of 13 amp square pin sockets. You should not use any high power appliances, e.g. additional heating, fans, kettles, toasters, rice cookers, within your bedroom.

Overseas students should be aware that electrical items e.g. laptop computers must be compatible with the UK Electrical Standard, 220-240 volts. Most laptops have dual voltage and can be easily adapted, if not you may need to purchase a transformer to increase the voltage. Please do not use equipment designed to operate on 110 volts.

UK power sockets only accept three square pin plugs and have protected insulated shutters that automatically cover and uncover the three holes. The plugs also contain a fuse; this should be the correct size (amp) to protect the appliance to which it is attached. The actual plug is known as type G. The power cord must be of suitable length, British Safety Standards require power cords to be between 1.8m and 3m.

Your personal electrical equipment should conform to BSS and IEE regulations as they are not PAT tested and our ‘PAT’ policy outlines how, for your own personal safety, we will remove personal electrical equipment if there is risk of fire or electrocution.

Electrical adaptors/extension leads

Each flat and bedroom has good provision of electric sockets, therefore, there should be no need to use extension leads.

Any adaptor that is used must meet British Standards, many, especially those brought from abroad do not and pose a danger and risk of electrocution. Any unsafe adaptors extension leads or electrical equipment found in your property during the planned inspections or on any other visit, will be removed by Accommodation Staff. Extension leads must not cause trip hazards to other residents and visitors.

Further information is available at www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/current-students/safety-security/#electricandgassafety.

For your own personal safety you should only use a travel adaptor which has been made to British Standard (BS) 1363. The BS identification number should be displayed where the pins are located. Staff will remove any dangerous adaptors found within our accommodation.

University-provided portable appliances are tested and maintained in accordance with our ‘Portable Appliance Testing (PAT) Policy’. A copy of our policy is available at: www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/useful-information/#policies
Utilities continued

Trip Switches are located within your apartment. If your electricity supply/lights go off, it is likely the circuit has tripped. This can easily be re-set. See ‘How to reset trip switch’ information provided in your information pack.

Gas

There is no gas in the apartments at Albion House or Barker House, however the boilers in the plant room of Barker House are gas fired, therefore if you think you smell gas in the vicinity telephone the National Grid Emergency number 0800 111 999

Further information is available at: www.nationalgrid.com/uk/safety-and-emergencies

Water

All hot and cold water services are installed, monitored and maintained to HSE and statutory public health requirements.

Legionella

A Legionella Risk Assessment is carried out every 2 years by a specialist contractor. Access will be required to a number of kitchens/bedrooms; 7 days’ notice will be given. Additionally access to each room will be required each quarter to clean shower heads and once a month to test the water temperature from the taps of kitchens and bathrooms.

If you are away from the property for 7 days or more you should run the taps to the wash basin and your shower for a minimum of 2 minutes before use. The toilet should also be flushed at least twice.

Need a TV licence?

If you install a TV, or use your laptop, tablet or PC to watch or record TV programmes as they are being broadcast, a TV licence is required by law. Licences can be purchased online at www.tvlicensing.co.uk

The fine for not having a valid licence could be as high as £1,000 and could lead to prosecution.

Paying for your TV licence

For students with a contract less than 50 weeks, opt to pay for your TV licence by monthly direct debit and when you leave your accommodation you can cancel it without paying for 12 months’ use.

Facilities

Fixtures and fittings

Our accommodation is maintained to a high standard and all furnishings conform to the relevant regulations. No additional items of furniture should be brought into your room.

As a minimum standard, your bedroom will be fitted with: curtains, desk, light, study chair, bed and mattress, bedside cabinet, chest of drawers, wardrobe, shelving.

Kitchens will be fitted with: hob, oven, fridge-freezers, television, dining table and chairs, vacuum cleaner, washer dryer, microwave oven.

Inventories

On arrival, you will be sent by email an inventory listing fixtures and fittings of any area that you have contractual responsibility for. You should check your inventory carefully, noting any discrepancies, damaged or missing items before returning it to your reception within seven days of your arrival. If you do not reply, this will be taken to mean you agree with the details on the inventory.

Damage

You are moving into purpose built, high quality accommodation, therefore it is essential that you treat the building and all fixtures and fittings with care and respect to ensure the standard is maintained.

Where repair or replacement is necessary due to damage caused by you or your visitors, you will be notified of the total cost and charged for the repair as soon as possible. Where damage occurs in the communal area of your accommodation, all residents will be jointly charged unless an individual claims responsibility. An administration fee will be added to the damage cost. A copy of our ‘Damages Policy is available at: www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/useful-information/#policies

Please report any damage to your reception, to allow us to take swift responsive action.

- Wear a piece of reflective clothing
- Avoid walking on roads

For routes to the University please see: www.walkit.com/cities/newcastle-gateshead

Services

Cleaning and inspections
During your stay, a member of staff will, at least once per term, require access to your accommodation to check the overall condition, i.e. it is being maintained in a clean, tidy and safe manner and no damage has been caused. In cases where the condition of the accommodation is not satisfactory, or where there is a suspected breach of your obligation, more regular visits may be necessary. If extra cleaning is required to bring your accommodation back to the condition in which you found it, as on your arrival, a cleaning contractor will be used and this will incur additional charges, as invoiced by the cleaning contractor, which will need to be paid by you.

During this inspection the door closers, window restrictors and smoke/heat detectors will be tested.

Public areas
The lifts, corridors and stairwells will be cleaned weekly by an external contractor, organised by the superior landlord.

Lost and left property
Any personal item of value lost or left will be logged at your reception and kept for 28 days. After this time any items not collected will be disposed of in accordance with our ‘Lost and Left Property Policy’ available at www.ncl.ac.uk/media/wwwnclacuk/accommodation/files/student_lost_left_property_policy.pdf

Letters and parcels (mail)
Lockable mail boxes are located in the entrance areas. Keys will be issued on arrival. There is no provision for the storage of parcels and staff are unable to sign for registered/recorded deliveries therefore you will need to arrange the delivery for when you/ a flatmate are in, or collect it yourself from a local Post Office.

Once you have permanently vacated the accommodation, we will not accept or redirect mail or parcels on your behalf. It is therefore important that you arrange redirection to your new address. This can be arranged via Royal Mail online at www.royalmail.com or through any Post Office.

Pest control

Please report any infestations that need to be treated, e.g. wasps or ants, as soon as possible to your reception or via the online Repair Reporting system or Mobile App available at www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/current-students/repairs/#repairs

Waste and refuse management/recycling

- Conserve energy by: switching off all lights when not needed and especially when you leave your room; not leaving electrical appliances on standby – switch off your television, stereo and PC including the monitor, especially overnight or if you are away at weekends.

- Conserve water by: not cleaning your teeth under a running tap and reporting dripping or leaking taps to reception.

- Cut time spent in the shower: Showers can use up to 12 litres of water per minute.

- Waste management: help us to reduce the amount of waste that needs to go to landfill by making good use of the recycling facilities available on site.

Whilst our grounds are cleared of rubbish and litter on a regular basis and kept tidy, please ensure you dispose of litter in the appropriate containers. A bin is available for recycling plastic, glass, paper, cardboard and cans and is clearly labelled. Bins are also available for general waste. You must use the appropriate bins, as a charge for contamination of recycling bins may be imposed by the Local Authority which will be passed onto tenants. The waste and recycling bins are usually emptied on Monday.

Environmental

Please be environmentally responsible and supportive of the University’s Environment Policy by making use of all resources and recycling facilities on site.

For additional information on what can be recycled please see www.ncl.ac.uk/media/wwwnclacuk/accommodation/files/a-z-recycling.pdf

The University is committed to promoting and demonstrating continuous improvement in environmental performance, ensuring best practice, statutory compliance and value for money. Further information is available at www.ncl.ac.uk/sustainable-campus.
Anti-social behaviour and discipline

You are required to act in a fit and proper manner at all times. We expect you to treat our property, co-tenants, and members of the local community, staff, neighbours and visitors with respect, regard and consideration. It is important that you recognise that you are now part of the larger community and respect the right of other individuals. You are also responsible for the behaviour of any visitors you have in your accommodation.

Where there has been an alleged breach of contract or these terms and conditions, this will be investigated in accordance with the University’s ‘Student Disciplinary Procedure’ available at: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/Regulations/Procedures/disciplinary

Residents are required to attend any investigatory meeting called by an ‘authorised person’.

Behaviour

We will treat you in a fair and consistent way and deal with you in a courteous manner. In return we would ask that you treat staff, contractors or other visitors with courtesy and respect. Indecent or offensive language or behaviour will not be tolerated.

You are also responsible for the behaviour of any guests you have visiting your property. Complaints from neighbours or other residents in Barker House will be taken seriously and will be dealt with through the University disciplinary procedure for students. You should not commit any form of discrimination or harassment towards your co-tenants or their visitors.

Noise

It is important that you recognise that you are now part of the community around you. You are urged to behave in a way which will cause least disruption to the local residents and other tenants. Please ensure that you minimise disturbance by being aware of noise levels when entering/leaving the premises, movement within your property and loud music.

Estate Security Staff patrol our accommodation and respond to and investigate incidents on our behalf and they are equipped with Body Worn Video (BWV) equipment. This enables security staff to obtain and secure evidence at incidents if required. In addition to providing supportive evidence for disciplinary proceedings and/or court, it has been found that BWV can provide other benefits such as:

- raise standards of service
- reduce incident escalation
- reduce unfounded complaints

Fines

See page 21 for exemplar fines. This is an indication of fines that may be charged for breaches of your terms and conditions of contract. This list is not exhaustive and may be amended by the Student Progress Service. Also see link for list of fines: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/progress/Regulations/Procedures/disciplinary/fines.htm

Payment of rent and other charges

Your rent is inclusive of energy and water charges along with personal contents insurance and internet access. Electricity consumption is covered up to the value of £3.30 per annum per tenant (£4.60 per studio apartment). You will incur additional charges if this allowance is exceeded. You will be notified of any additional charge and the cost split between the flat equally. You will be regularly updated on your electricity usage. No refunds will be given for electricity use below the allowance.

You may also have other additional charges throughout the duration of your contract for items such as damage costs, fines, replacement keys/late unlocking, room swap fees, or late payment charges, if applicable.

Your accommodation contract will detail the total rent charge but will not include any additional charges as listed above.

We offer a number of ways in which to pay your rent, including payment in full with the possibility of an early payment discount as well as payment by direct debit in either termly or equal monthly instalments. Further information is available at: www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/rent-payments/

You can sign up to direct debit at the same time as formally accepting your accommodation contract. Further information is available at: https://directdebits.ncl.ac.uk/DirectDebits/Home

If paying by direct debit, it is your responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient funds in your bank account to honour the payment. If not, you will be charged a direct debit rejection fee of £25 in addition to costs that your bank may charge you. If you wish to cancel your direct debit, you must advise us at least five working days in advance of the payment due date.

Information on payment collection dates/deadlines is available at www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/rent-payments/direct/#paymentdates

Avoid a £25 late payment fee

If you experience difficulties in making payment by the required date, you should ensure you speak with a member of the Accommodation Service situated on Level 2, King’s Gate. We are here to help and can give you advice and guidance on what financial assistance could be available.

Non-payment

If you cannot show reasonable cause for non-payment or give satisfactory assurance as to when payment will be made, you may be charged a £25 late payment fee to reflect administration costs incurred by the University.

For continued non-payment, your circumstances will be assessed and considered for further action which will include either referral to an external debt collection agency, or an application being made to the County Court to begin eviction proceedings to remove you from the accommodation. This course of action will incur additional costs and could affect your credit rating in the future.

If your rent is paid by someone else, such as a parent or sponsor, we will discuss details of your account with them if you have given us permission to do so.

Payment by overseas bank transfer

Further information is available at https://www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/rent-payments/payment

Room moves

The room you have chosen or been allocated is the room you will be expected to occupy for the duration of your accommodation contract.

Room swaps

Room swaps may be available: Already found a student to swap with? If you have found another student also living in your residence and you wish to swap rooms with each other, you need to speak with the Accommodation Service on Level 2, King’s Gate. If so, you can agree a moving date and new contracts will be prepared.

Please note: You may only swap rooms with someone of the same gender depending on the gender balance of each apartment; also undergraduates are not able to swap with postgraduates and vice versa. If one student is withdrawing from the University, or leaving the accommodation to live elsewhere, this does not count as a swap.

Avoid a £25 late payment fee

If you experience difficulties in making payment by the required date, you should ensure you speak with a member of the Accommodation Service situated on Level 2, King’s Gate. We are here to help and can give you advice and guidance on what financial assistance could be available.

No room moves will be permitted where there is any rent owed to the University. The first move will be free but a charge of £25 will be incurred for second and subsequent moves. Students making unauthorised room moves will be required to move back to the original allocated room and charged accordingly if cleaning is required.

We also have a dedicated Facebook page for Accommodation Swaps where you can easily find a room to swap with another student: www.facebook.com/Accommodation.NCLswaps/
Contractual liability

There is no notice period within your fixed term contract which means you will not be released from the contract before the end date stated in it and you remain responsible for all rent charges, even if you are asked to leave following a breach of contact or you decide to vacate the accommodation before the end of your liability.

Continuing your studies but wanting to leave University accommodation

If you decide that living in your residence is no longer what you want and choose to move to other accommodation, whether privately rented or your home address, you will remain liable under the contract. You will remain responsible for the rent until the end of the contract or until the room is re-let to another Newcastle University student (a ‘successor’) who is not already contracted to another tenancy. If a new occupant is found, you will remain liable until the date on which the new occupant moves in. We strongly recommend that you do not move out nor sign another accommodation contract until a replacement tenant is found. Further information is available at www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/current-students/leaving/

Finding a replacement student (a ‘successor’)

You are responsible for finding a replacement student (a ‘successor’), but the Accommodation Service at King’s Gate will assist you with this process. You will need to complete a ‘Re-let Request Form’ which indicates your request to end your contract.

Whilst the Accommodation Service may have a small list of students looking for accommodation at the beginning of the year, we cannot guarantee that a ‘successor’ would be interested in your specific room. We will contact these students on your behalf and make arrangements for them to view your room/flat.

If you have already left the accommodation, we will need to gain access to the room to clean and prepare it for potential viewings, so you should ensure you remove all personal belongings when you leave. If we are successful in finding a ‘successor’, your contractual liability will end when their contract begins. The Accommodation Service cannot guarantee that a ‘successor’ will be found, however if successful, you will be required to pay a £100 administration fee.

Notice to leave your accommodation

A breach of your contractual terms could result in you being asked to leave the University accommodation following the serving of a legal Notice of Seeking Possession. You will be given 28 days to vacate the accommodation with an explanation of why this course of action is being taken. Whilst you may have been asked to leave, you remain liable for all accommodation fees due under the original contract. We may however, reduce your contract liability to the termly billing period during which you are asked to vacate. Termly billing periods are listed on page 28.

Withdrawing or suspending your studies

In the event that you cease to be a registered student at the University following a decision to withdraw or suspend your studies, you will continue to be charged rent on the room for the remainder of the tenancy period unless another student can be found to move into your room.

You will only be released from this, if the room is re-let to another Newcastle University student (a ‘successor’) who is not already contracted to another University room.

Postgraduate research students

In most instances, this refers only to students following a Doctoral or MPhil course of study. You will be able to give 28 days’ formal notice in writing of your intention to leave University accommodation prior to the end of your period of registered study at the University, or if you intend to leave for research purposes. You must provide an official letter of support from your academic school before your notice can be accepted. This does not apply to taught postgraduate students leaving for research purposes.

It is your responsibility to inform the Accommodation Service at King’s Gate of your intention to withdraw or suspend your studies.

You should keep us informed of your situation and not assume that your School or the Student Progress Service will notify us of your change in circumstances.
When you leave

When you leave our accommodation, during or at the end of your contract, you are responsible for ensuring your accommodation is in the same condition as you found it upon your arrival. A copy of our departure checklist and a cleaning schedule will be provided before your departure.

www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/current-students/leaving/

Key return

The return of keys during your contract is in no way an acceptance on the University’s behalf of the termination on any part of the contract which remains unexpired.

When leaving your accommodation either during or at the end of the contract, you must ensure you return all keys to your reception.

At the end of the academic year, responsibility for rent will not cease until your keys have been returned.

If your keys are not returned within a maximum of eight days of the contract end, then for the security of future residents, the University reserves the right to charge for a lock change (up to £250).

A copy of our ‘Key Policy’ is available at www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/useful-information/#policies

Keys must not be left in your room/flat or with a friend to return on your behalf. Responsibility for the safe and timely return of keys lies with you.
