RSHP BURSARY

Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners is an international architectural practice based in London. Over the past four decades, RSHP has attracted critical acclaim and awards with built projects across Europe, the Americas, Asia and Australia.

A strong commitment to education is one of the core values of RSHP.

RSHP will fund two bursaries of £5,000 each in 2018-19 academic year; these will be awarded to students from Stage 2 and Stage 3 of the K100 BA Architecture programme.

The bursary will entitle the successful applicant to a single payment of £5,000. Students must meet the eligibility requirements overleaf and be able to demonstrate financial need as well as a high level of academic potential.

How to apply – written applications answering the questions shown overleaf should be directed to Ruth Daglish (APL Teaching & Learning Administrator) via email at ruth.daglish@ncl.ac.uk

Deadline - Wednesday 5th December 2018 at 4pm

(Applications received after this deadline will not be considered)
Application Questions:

- Please detail how you have funded your studies so far, including tuition fees and living costs. Please confirm that you have applied for all available student finance
- Please detail how this bursary would support your studies
- What do you enjoy most about studying architecture
- What are your plans after graduation
- What do you see yourself doing in ten years’ time

Please note that by completing this application form you are agreeing to the University sharing this information with the sponsoring firm, Rogers Stirk Harbour and Partners.

Eligibility – candidates for the scholarship will be in their second and third year of the BA Architecture degree. You must not be in receipt of any other scholarships, bursaries or additional financial support (excluding the Student Financial Support Fund/Financial Assistant Fund), and will have applied for all student finance that is available to you.
