Newcastle West End Children’s Community aims to bring people together to work in a co-ordinated way to tackle poverty. We will be talking about our journey together as a partnership, and our successes and challenges along the way.

Play Project
Karen Laing
k.j.c.laing@ncl.ac.uk
Come and learn about how we are developing a play, leisure and culture strategy for the West End of Newcastle by using research, community consultation and partnership working.

Re-imagining Ancient Greece…
Andrew Parkin, Keeper of Archaeology, Great North Museum & Ulrike Thomas
u.thomas@ncl.ac.uk
Find out how we co-produced a Key Stage 2 Community Curriculum Project.

Gertrude Bell Comics
Lydia Wysocki
lydia.wysocki@ncl.ac.uk
This interdisciplinary project using webcomics to support young people’s engagement with the digitised Gertrude Bell archive is now on to its 2nd and 3rd phases. In translating our comics from English to Turkish and English to Arabic, we’re addressing potential areas of political and cultural sensitivity and also identifying further snapshots of stories to tell.

Welcome from CfLaT Director, Jill Clark
What works well in partnerships from your perspective?
Networking activity with tea, coffee and cake

Co-produced approaches to evaluating the impact of Forest School
Harriet Menter (Scotswood Natural Community Garden) & Lucy Tiplady
lucy.tiplady@ncl.ac.uk
The Breeze Forest School project (Scotswood Garden) aims to impact upon the emotional wellbeing of children and young people with additional needs. We will reflect on our experiences of partnership working, using theory of change to evidence impact and how Froebelian principles have informed our understandings of learner-led pedagogy and play.

Space to breathe: developing school outdoor space through community action.
Pam Woolner and Prudhoe Proud Hill Project
pamela.woolner@ncl.ac.uk
Pam has been working with a local secondary school and the community group, Proud Hill, that formed to develop the outdoors space of the recently rebuilt school. The aim was to facilitate the participation of school staff and students in the process.

North East Outdoor Learning Hub meeting
Led by Lucy Tiplady & Eric Fletcher
eric.fletcher@ncl.ac.uk
Bringing together Outdoor Learning practitioners, users and researchers from across the north east of England, we will provide an update of current activity across the OL Research Hub network, and then discuss the challenges of and implications for practitioner-based research. Come and join us!
