The Northern Bridge Doctoral Training Partnership invites top-calibre applicants to apply to its 2020/2021 doctoral studentships competition. Up to 67 fully-funded doctoral studentships are available across the full range of arts and humanities subjects, including: Spanish, Portuguese and Latin American Studies.

The Northern Bridge is an exciting, AHRC-funded collaboration between:

Newcastle University, Durham University, Queen’s University Belfast, Ulster University, Northumbria University, Sunderland University, and Teesside University.
Our aim is to deliver outstanding doctoral education in the arts and humanities, and successful applicants will join a thriving cohort of almost fifty Northern Bridge PhD students recruited through last year’s studentship competition.

Northern Bridge offers exceptional supervision by academic staff researching at the cutting edge of their disciplines, vibrant research environments that promote interdisciplinary enquiry, and research training and career development opportunities tailored to the needs of twenty-first-century researchers.
Spanish, Portuguese, and Latin American Studies offers supervision in the following areas:
