Introduction

Exams at Newcastle University

Each year, the Exams & Awards Team schedules and manages over 2,500 different exams equating to over 100,000 individual exam sittings.

On a typical day during the main exam periods, exams are run simultaneously across more than 40 different exam venues. These range from small venues for individual candidates up to venues accommodating 350 candidates.

Exams are held at venues based on campus as well as some located externally within the city. Some exams will also be run concurrently at the University’s external campuses in Singapore, Malaysia and London.

Importance of Invigilation

Exam Invigilators play an integral role in helping us to ensure that:

- the security of exams is maintained
- exams are conducted in a fair and appropriate manner
- all students are able to sit exams in a suitable environment
- rules and procedures are applied consistently across all venues

The assessment of students and the integrity of our exam process is of paramount importance to the University.
Key Attributes

Friendly, helpful and approachable

- e.g. welcoming students into the room
- e.g. advising on where to place belongings
- e.g. being available to answer questions

Sympathetic and supportive

- e.g. listening to student concerns
- e.g. allowing sufficient time to settle before the start of an exam
- e.g. providing a calm environment

Professional and vigilant at all times

- e.g. ensuring that papers and stationery are laid out correctly
- e.g. observing candidates before, during and after the exam to ensure the exam rules are being followed
- e.g. not engaging in any activity which may distract you from performing your duty (e.g. reading, looking at phone etc.)

“Having friendly invigilators is wonderful – it immediately reduces stress levels, allowing you to focus on the exam...”

Please Remember...

...to avoid any unnecessary disturbance

Invigilators should:

- wear soft soled shoes
- keep any necessary discussions to a minimum and conduct them in a whisper away from candidates

...that exams can be stressful

Exams can occasionally provoke unreasonable, uncharacteristic or extreme behavior. Situations should be dealt with in a sympathetic and supportive manner which minimises any adverse effect on other candidates and maintains the security of the exam.

“Invigilators talked to each other right behind my desk several times...this was extremely distracting and off-putting”
Responsibilities

Senior Invigilators

i) To collect exam papers from King's Gate and/or report to the venue at the specified arrival time.

ii) Instruct the Assistant Invigilators which area(s) of the room they should cover during the exam and ensure that candidates are constantly and appropriately supervised.

iii) Ensure papers and materials are distributed appropriately.

iv) Conduct invigilation and administration of the exam process in such a way as to cause minimum disruption to candidates.

v) Make announcements to candidates as necessary.

vi) Ensure conduct in the appointed exam room adheres to the University's exam procedures and policies.

vii) Follow the correct procedure should a candidate become ill, distressed or behave in a way perceived to be misconduct.

viii) Ensure that all invigilators are familiar with the fire exits in the room in which you are invigilating.

ix) Ensure that completed exam scripts are collected, accurately tallied and delivered to the Exams Office.

x) Submit a full and accurate report on each exam recording any incidents, disruptions or suspected irregularities.

Assistant Invigilators

i) Report to the appointed exam venue at the specified arrival time.

ii) Assist the Senior Invigilator with the distribution of papers and the collection of attendance slips.

iii) Observe candidates and check the desks of candidates occupying the area(s) of the exam room assigned to you by the Senior Invigilator.

iv) Collect all papers and materials from the candidate desks assigned to you by the Senior Invigilator.

v) Report any matters of concern to the Senior Invigilator.
Before the Exam

Reporting for duty

Unless advised to the contrary, Assistant Invigilators should report for duty at the following time:

- Large venue (i.e. over 100 candidates) - 40 mins (before start time)
- PC venue - 40 mins (before start time)
- Small venues - 20 mins (before start time)
- Small Room (alternative arrangements) - 40 mins (before start time)
- Individual room (alternative arrangements) - 30 mins (before start time)*

*You must report to King’s Gate to collect the exam materials.

The venue type will be clearly indicated on the list of allocated duties but please check with the Exams Office in advance if you are unsure.

It is essential that Invigilators arrive at the designated venue at the required time. This is very important due to the time needed for the preparation and set-up of the room and also so that the Senior Invigilator can plan and delegate tasks effectively.

If invigilators do not arrive on time then this can also waste crucial time for both the Senior Invigilator and the Exams Office as the latter will have to try and contact the invigilator or arrange cover.

On arrival at the room you should sign-in on the sheet provided.

Venue set-up

On arrival at the exam venue, there are many tasks to complete in order to ensure that the exam runs smoothly.

Layout and notices:
The Senior Invigilator will check the layout reflects the seating plan and that exam notices for candidates are displayed in clear view. A list of any candidates sitting in the venue with extra time will be provided and an individual sheet showing end time will be placed on their desks.

The seat plan provided by the Exams Office will be displayed at the entrance to the room.

Exam conditions:
The Senior Invigilator is responsible for ensuring conditions are appropriate before the exam begins and should take up any concerns on arrival in the room with the Exams Office. Please assist the Senior in checking the room for anything which might cause disturbance or discomfort to candidates.

Important information:
The Senior Invigilator will instruct Assistant Invigilators of any authorised material or special instructions for the exams taking place. You should also be informed of the location of the nearest toilets and emergency exits.

Allocated areas:
The Senior Invigilator should clearly indicate which parts of the room each Assistant is responsible for.

Setting out papers and stationery:
Set out the answer books and exam papers in accordance with the seat plan and Senior Invigilator instructions. Exam papers should be placed face up. Where multiple papers are taking place in the venue, check and double-check that papers are laid out correctly.

Please note that Invigilators who regularly arrive late for their duties will be removed from the pool.
Admitting the candidates

It is very important that candidates are given sufficient time to enter the room and to get settled before the exam begins. Depending on the size of the venue, this is likely to be between 10-20 minutes in total.

Checking ID

- At least one Assistant Invigilator should be positioned at the entrance and students advised to show their student ID card in order to enter the venue. (The ID does not need to be carefully checked at this point, just that the student has some in their possession).
- Any student without their student ID card (or other official form of photo ID e.g. passport or driving license) must be directed to the nearest ID checking station to obtain an ID slip.

Reminders

As the candidates are entering the room, they should be regularly reminded to:

- Leave coats and bags in the designated area
- Switch off mobile phones/smart watches and to leave them in the designated area
- Place any non-authorised equipment/material in the designated area
- Not open the exam paper until instructed to do so
- Complete the attendance slip and answer book cover

A smile and a welcome can help play a big part in helping to relieve nerves and maintaining a calm atmosphere.

Starting the exam

The Senior Invigilator should start the exam at the published start time or, in the event of unavoidable delay, as soon as possible afterwards. In no circumstances should an exam begin before the published start time.

Announcements

The Senior Invigilator shall announce all the rules and conduct of the exam as shown on pages 32-35.

Announcements should be made clearly as English may be a second language for many of the exam candidates.

The candidates’ attention should be drawn to the official clock being used to time the exam. Arrangements should be made for any students who cannot see any clock.

For venues with a PC and large monitor or projector screen, you can display an online clock by logging onto the PC as follows:

Username: nolaf
Password: HBTebab32
http://ipadstopwatch.com/clock-fullscreen.html

It is preferable to start the exam a minute or two late rather than rushing through the announcements in order to start on time.
During the Exam

Authorised material and equipment

As early as possible after the exam has started, if not before, invigilators should discreetly check candidates’ desks to ensure that they do not have any unauthorised material or equipment. Invigilators are permitted to pick-up items and to look through books/materials as necessary in order to ensure their validity.

Calculators:
Only approved models as per the Calculator Policy (see page 31) are permitted. Invigilators should also refer to the exam instruction sheet to check that calculators are permitted.

Dictionaries:
The use of translation dictionaries (e.g. French-English, English-German etc.) is permitted in all exams other than those in which language translation itself is the skill being assessed. Please check the Dictionary Policy (see page 31) for further details.

Authorised books or materials:
Any authorised books or materials will be detailed on the exam instruction sheet. They should be carefully checked to ensure that they comply and the Exams Office should be contacted if any clarification is needed.

Pencil cases:
Must be clear/transparent and should only contain equipment needed in order to complete the exam.

Drink bottles:
Labels must be removed.

Confirming ID and attendance

No more than 15 minutes after the start of the exam, the Assistant Invigilator(s) should collect the completed attendance slips from their designated desks. Slips should be collected in desk no. order and then returned to the Senior Invigilator.

The student must be checked against their photographic ID to ensure that they are the same person.

If any student does not have an appropriate form of ID or an ID check slip and the exam has already begun, they must be accompanied to an ID check point.

Any candidate wearing a veil for religious reasons and who chooses not to remove it in the exam room should be given the opportunity to show their face to an invigilator of the same sex in a discrete location nearby. If no suitable invigilator is available, contact the Exams Office immediately and a member of staff will come to the venue.
Entry and exit from the exam venue

Late students:
No candidate may enter the exam room more than 15 minutes after the exam has begun. Any students arriving after this point should be advised to report to their School Office.

Any candidates who arrive late, but within 15 minutes, will not be allowed any extra time at the end of the exam for their late arrival.

Leaving the room:
No candidates are permitted to leave the room during the first 60 minutes of the exam. This includes any students wishing to leave early as well as any students wishing to visit the toilet.

No candidates may also leave the room during the final 30 minutes of the exam, except for a temporary and accompanied break due to an emergency or illness.

For exams with a duration of 1hr 30mins, the Senior Invigilator may use their discretion in permitting a one-time opportunity, on the 60 minute mark only, for students to leave early or to use the toilet.

Toilet arrangements
Candidates wishing to visit the toilet (after the first 60 mins and before the final 30 mins only) must be accompanied by an Assistant Invigilator to the door of the nearest toilet.

The accompanying invigilator should ask the student to empty their pockets in order to demonstrate that they do not have a phone or any notes in their possession. Invigilators should not physically search or have any contact with the student in this process.

If a student is found in possession of unauthorised material/device (e.g. mobile phone or smart watch), then the Senior Invigilator should follow the Guidance for Assessment Irregularities (see pages 32-35).

Exam queries
If a candidate reports an error or ambiguity in the exam paper, the Senior Invigilator should immediately contact the Exams Office who will attempt to seek a response or clarification.

In order to ensure consistency across all venues the Exams Office must be contacted in all cases, including when the Module Leader is present in the exam room and has already addressed the issue.

If the problem has caused a delay or disturbance, the Senior Invigilator can allow extra time at the end of the exam to compensate. This should be checked with the Exams Office first in order to ensure consistency.

Invigilators must never advise candidates on the meaning or interpretation of questions or attempt to answer queries themselves.

Additional stationery
If a student requests any additional paper, 2 sheets of official exam paper should be supplied as quickly as possible along with a treasury tag to join the supplementary sheets to the answer book.

Students should only be issued with supplementary paper when they have exhausted the exam stationery initially provided.

Please ensure all unused supplementary paper is collected at the end of the exam before the candidates leave the hall.
Illness

If a candidate becomes ill during an exam and needs to leave the room as a result, the Senior Invigilator should make a note on the script and record the time the student stopped working.

The student may leave the room for a short time then return to complete the paper, provided they have been continuously accompanied by an Assistant Invigilator. No extra time should be given but the student can report extenuating circumstances to their School. The script should be marked with the time of the exam was interrupted and its recommencement. The Senior Invigilator should also include details in their exam report.

Where candidates wish to leave an exam early because they are distressed, please advise them that they may seek advice and assistance from their Personal Tutor, the Student Wellbeing Service or their School.

Disturbances

In the event of noise or other external factor causing a disturbance in the room, please notify the Senior Invigilator immediately.

It is essential that any incident or condition which could potentially cause disturbance or discomfort to students is reported.

If you are in any doubt as to what to do in regards to an illness or an exam disturbance, please contact the Exams Office.

Fire alarm

The fire assembly point for each exam room is listed on the ‘Useful Information Sheet’ on display in the venue. In the event of an emergency:

- All candidates should be instructed to stop writing, leave all papers, answer books and bags and to silently leave the room
- Candidates should be advised that exam conditions (i.e. no talking) should continue until instructed otherwise.
- Invigilators should keep candidates together and proceed to the fire assembly point as quickly as possible.
- The Senior Invigilator shall ensure that all candidates have left the building safely, and keep them together at the assembly point.

The Exams Office should be contacted as soon as possible. The Exams & Awards Manager or representative will determine whether the exam should be allowed to continue.
Irregularity, misconduct or disturbance

During exams, Invigilators should regularly conduct unobtrusive patrols and closely monitor any suspicious behavior or activity.

Assessment irregularities in an exam room usually involve the possession of unauthorised material/equipment/devices, conferring with another student or a disturbance caused by a mobile device.

However, any breach of the Exam Rules constitutes an assessment irregularity or exam misconduct and should therefore be acted upon and reported. It is very important that the Exam Rules are consistently applied across all exam venues.

Please refer to the full Exam Rules and Guidance (see pages 26-31) as well as any specific exam instructions for the papers being taken in the venue.

What to do

If an Assistant Invigilator suspects or witnesses any breach of the Exam Rules, they should provide details to the Senior Invigilator immediately.

For more serious breaches:

Including, but not limited to, the possession of unauthorised material/equipment or conferring; the Senior Invigilator should follow the Guidelines for Assessment Irregularities (see pages 32-35), including the completion of the relevant online form at the end of the exam.

For less serious breaches:

Including, but not limited to, the possession of a non-clear pencil case, drink bottle with a label on or non-permitted calculator etc; the item should be confiscated for the duration of the exam and the incident included in the Senior Invigilator’s exam report.

At the End of the Exam

Ending the exam

Announcements

The Senior Invigilator shall announce the time when there are 30 minutes remaining. Students should not be permitted to leave after this point, including to visit the toilet.

At the point that the exam should finish, the Senior Invigilator shall announce the end of the exam and instruct candidates as per the announcements shown on page 35.

Collecting scripts and papers

Assistant Invigilators should collect all material (both used and unused) from their allocated desks, being very careful to collect all documents from every candidate.

Students who have used supplementary sheets should attach them to their answer book with the tag provided. All answer books and supplementary sheets must be collected before students leave the hall.

Candidates may take away question papers unless specifically stated otherwise on the exam instructions sheet. For exams where students are not permitted to take away the paper and it does not form part of the script, the papers should be collected separately from the exam scripts.

In no circumstances are students allowed to take any exam stationery away with them from the exam room.
Maintaining exam conditions

It is very important that exam conditions are maintained whilst all the exam scripts are being collected, checked and accounted for.

In addition, in many exam venues there may be students continuing to work after the majority of candidates have finished. It is therefore essential that silence is maintained until all students have finished their exams and left the exam room.

The Senior Invigilator should consider how best to achieve the minimum level of disruption when allowing students to leave.

“One of my invigilators was brilliant in maintaining silence. He let students leave row by row and ensured the rest of the team were carefully positioned to minimise any noise”

Packaging the completed scripts

Main venues

The Senior Invigilator is responsible for packing the completed scripts in the main venues. Where multiple exams are taking place within one venue, Assistant Invigilators may be asked to help check that each script is placed within the correct packet.

Individual rooms

As an Assistant Invigilator, you may be asked to invigilate a student in an individual room. Please see pages 22-25 for further information.

At the end of the exam, you should place the following documents into the plastic script packet:

- Completed exam script
- Attendance List
- Spare copy of the exam paper, unless the instructions state that all papers should go in the grey envelopes

Seal the packet and then complete and affix an address label on to the front of the packet.

The following should be retained for submission to the Exams Office:

- Attendance slip (in envelope)
- Invigilator sign-in sheet

You should return the script packet to the Exams Office immediately following the exam session.

Module Leaders may wish to collect scripts directly from the exam venue. If the script is collected, the member of staff must show their staff ID card and sign the bottom of the Invigilators sign-in sheet.

Administration of completed scripts

Before any students are permitted to leave the room, the Senior Invigilator must ensure that all scripts have been accounted for.

Once all scripts have been collected, the Senior Invigilator should count them and cross-reference with the attendance list.

Any discrepancies must be investigated and resolved before candidates leave the room.
Invigilator’s Report

Senior Invigilators must fully complete an online report form for each exam session and report all incidents. Assistant Invigilators who are conducting an exam in an individual room must also complete an online report.

Failure to complete report forms fully and correctly will be noted and, if repeated, may result in removal from the Invigilator Pool.

What to include

Incidents that should be detailed in the report include:

- Student illness
- Disturbances
- Delays either before or during the exam
- Exam paper queries
- Late students who have been turned away
- PC problems (for PC exams)
- Rest breaks taken (for exams in alternative arrangements venues only)
- Any issue that may have impacted on either the students or the integrity of the exam.

Incidents should be reported concisely, but with all relevant details included.

Why are they important?

Reports are forwarded on to Schools so that they are aware of any incidents that may have occurred and so that they can take them into account, as appropriate, during the marking/exam board process.

They may also be referred to in regards to student appeals or complaints against the University.

Report forms

Please note that there are two different online report forms, one for main venues and one for alternative arrangements venues (i.e. the Small Room or individual exam rooms). Please ensure that you complete the correct online report:

For main venues:
https://forms.ncl.ac.uk/view.php?id=5561

For alternative arrangements venues:
https://forms.ncl.ac.uk/view.php?id=5592

It is important that incidents are correctly recorded in the relevant sections and that the reports are written in a concise and appropriate manner (i.e. report facts not opinions).
Alternative Exam Arrangements

The purpose of alternative exam arrangements is to provide an environment that gives all students an equal opportunity for assessment.

The Exams Office works closely with the Student Wellbeing Service in order to provide a fair and flexible exam system for any students who may require exam arrangements.

Types of arrangement

The types of arrangement that are normally granted include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

- Extra time
- Rest breaks
- Change of exam venue/seating arrangement
- Use of a PC

Some students may also be granted the use of specialist equipment/software or the use of a scribe/reader to assist them.

“The arrangements I was granted were all implemented perfectly. This meant that I could just focus on doing my best in the exam.”

Venues

With the exception of the students sitting in the main venues (see below), many students who have been granted alternative exam arrangements will sit in alternative venues.

Small Room

The ‘Small Room’ refers to a venue where there are no more than 25 students taking exams. These venues typically accommodate students who have been granted rest breaks or students requiring a smaller venue to the main exam venues.

PC venue

Most students who have been granted the use of a PC will sit in a PC cluster which typically accommodates up to approx. 30 students.

Small PC venue

This will be a smaller PC cluster that is used to accommodate students who require the use of a PC in addition to rest breaks and/or a smaller venue.

Individual room

These venues accommodate students who have been granted the use of an individual room, or whose provision means that they cannot sit with other students (e.g. students requiring a scribe/reader).

Main venue

Students who have only been granted extra time normally sit in the main exam venues with the rest of their cohort. The students with extra time will be allocated desks furthest from the exit to try and limit any disruption when the rest of the students leave.
Rest breaks

Calculating rest breaks

Students who have been granted rest breaks will have been granted a specific amount of time i.e. 5/10/15/20 minutes per hour.

Invigilators should check the total amount of rest breaks that should be permitted for the exam by referring to the table below. Where exam durations are non-standard due to the addition of extra time (e.g. 1hr 15mins), or fall between whole hours (e.g. 1hr 30mins), rest break allowances are rounded up.

It is good practice to display the student’s end time (e.g. on the white board) so that this can be updated every time the student takes a break.

Total amount of rest breaks permitted according to exam duration:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Exam Duration</th>
<th>5 mins p/h</th>
<th>10 mins p/h</th>
<th>15 mins p/h</th>
<th>20 mins p/h</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>2hrs 1min– 3hrs</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than 4hrs</td>
<td>25 mins</td>
<td>50 mins</td>
<td>75 mins</td>
<td>100 mins</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Process for taking a rest break

Rest breaks should be considered as ‘stop the clock’ time and can be taken at any point during the student’s exam. Students should be advised of the total amount of rest break time they are permitted for the exam.

Students can use their total rest break allowance however they wish; there are no restrictions on how long each break must be or how many separate breaks are allowed.

- Students must indicate to an invigilator when they wish to take a break (a red or blue card is used in the ‘Small Room’ venues).
- Invigilators should then turn over the student’s exam paper and exam script and note the time when the rest break started.
- Students may wish to stay at their desk, stretch or move around to relieve discomfort at the back of the exam room, take a drink or snack if recommended, or visit the toilet.
- Students must inform the invigilator when they are ready to return to their paper.
- The invigilator should note the amount of time that has been taken and then update the student’s end time on the board.

Toilet visits and leaving early

Please note that for exams taking place in alternative arrangements venues (rather than the main exam venues), there are some slight differences to the standard exam procedures:

Toilet visits are permitted at ANY time during the exam including the first 60 minutes and the final 30 minutes.

Students are not permitted to leave the exam early during the first 60 minutes but they are permitted to leave early at any point after that (including the final 30 minutes).

Equipment

Some students may have been permitted the use of their own specialist equipment e.g. blood sugar monitors, keyboards, supports etc.

This will be detailed in the information provided to invigilators before the exam. Personal equipment belonging to students should be checked at the start of the exam to ensure that there is no writing or notes on it.
Exam Rules and Guidance

Permitted items

✓ University Smartcard (or your passport/driving license if you do not have your Smartcard)

✓ Pens, pencils and any equipment necessary for completion of the exam. These must be placed in a clear pencil case or clear plastic bag.

✓ Calculator (only if permitted for the exam) – calculators must be in accordance with the University’s Calculator Policy

✓ Dictionary (the use of paper copy bilingual dictionaries (e.g. French-English, English-German etc.) is permitted in all exams other than those in which language translation itself is being assessed) – dictionaries must be in accordance with the University's Dictionary Policy

✓ Drink (non-carbonated) and a small packet of sweets. Labels must be removed from bottles.

✓ Jumpers (as the temperature in exam venues can vary and coats/outdoor jackets are not permitted).

Non-permitted items:

✖ Mobile phones, tablets, smart watches or any other electronic devices. Even if they are switched off, they must still not be on your person (e.g. in your pocket) or around your desk area. They must be left in the area designated for personal belongings.

✖ Books, notes, blank paper, learning material or any equipment not specifically authorised in the exam instructions. If the exam is not a closed book exam, you are advised to check what materials will be permitted with the module leader before the exam.

✖ Headwear (except for religious purposes)

✖ Coats/outdoor jackets (these are not permitted to be worn or hung on the back of your chair)

✖ Bags
Before the start of the exam

- Ensure that all mobile phones/smart watches (and any other electronic devices) are fully switched off, including alarm functions, and place in the area designated for personal belongings.
- Sit at your designated desk.
- Enter the required details on the yellow attendance slip and place your student ID card on top.
- Enter the required details on the front cover of your answer book (or exam script cover for write-on exams).

- Do not communicate with other exam candidates.
- Do not open the exam question paper.
- Do not write any notes/formulae on the exam stationery or paper.

During the exam

- Do all rough work on the answer books/paper provided (draw a line through any work that is not intended for marking).
- Write answers legibly in blue or black ink only.
- Follow all instructions given by the invigilators.
- Raise your hand if you have a query, require another answer book/more paper or need to visit the toilet.

- Do not communicate with other exam candidates.
- Do not leave the exam room (including for toilet visits) during the first 60 minutes and the last 30 minutes of your exam.
- Do not use correction fluid, tape or pens to erase work.
- Do not leave the exam room without the permission of the invigilator.
At the end of the exam

On the front cover of your answer book or exam script cover:

✔ Enter the number of each question attempted in the grid in the order in which they appear...

✔ ...and complete the slip on the right hand side, then remove the white strip covering the glue and fold down to conceal your name.

✔ Ensure that your exam script and any other material to be submitted is collected by invigilators.

✔ Remain seated and silent until you are instructed to leave.

❌ Do not continue to write your answers, you must stop immediately.

❌ Do not talk with other candidates until you are outside the building (as there may be exams continuing within the venue or in nearby rooms).

❌ Do not remove official Newcastle University answer books/paper from the exam room, or the exam paper (unless permitted to do so).

Calculator Policy

Please note that for any students starting during or after 2015/16, only the following 3 different models of calculator will be permitted for use in exams:

- Casio FX-83GTPLUS
- Casio FX-85GTPLUS
- Casio FX-115MS

- (Plus any discontinued versions of the same models of calculators. For clarity, this means any calculator model that begins with ‘Casio FX-83’, ‘Casio FX-85’ or ‘Casio FX-115’. For example, a Casio FX-83ES is permitted, but a Casio FX-82ES is not).

Any students who started prior to 2015/16 will continue to be able to use their current calculator provided it has been issued with an ‘approved’ sticker. If the calculator does not have an approved sticker, then it will not be permitted in exams unless it is one of the 3 models detailed above.

Dictionary Policy

- The use of paper copy bilingual dictionaries (e.g. French-English, English-German etc.) is permitted in all exams other than those in which language itself is being assessed.
- ‘Learner’ dictionaries or other texts which include content other than word to word translations are not permitted.
- Candidates are not permitted to use any other dictionary except where specified in the exam instructions.
- It is the responsibility of each student to supply themselves with a bilingual dictionary, if they so wish.
- Such dictionaries must not have been annotated in any way by the candidate of by any other person.
- It is the responsibility of each student to ensure the dictionary is a clean copy with no notes or unauthorised content.

Announcements

As candidates enter the room
You must have your student ID card or other form of formal photo ID with you to take the exam. If you do not, you must go to (nearest ID checking station) to have your ID checked before you sit the exam.

Please ensure you have checked the seating plan and are sitting in the correct seat.

Please leave bags and coats at the back/front of the hall and take a seat as quickly and quietly as possible.

Mobile phones must be fully switched off, including alarm functions, and left with your personal belongings. Smart watches must also be removed and placed with your personal belongings.

Remove any revision notes etc. from your pockets as these must also be placed with your personal belongings.

When candidates are seated and settled

In the event of a fire, exits are located____. If we are forced to leave the hall please stay with the group and await instructions.

If you have not already done so, switch off mobile phones including alarm functions, and place in the area designated for personal belongings. Smart watches must also be removed and left with your personal belongings. You must not have a mobile phone or a smart watch in your possession or around your desk during the exam.

If your mobile phone or device rings or makes a sound during the exam, this is a disciplinary offence. You will be reported to the Student Progress Service and you may be required to pay a fine. Water bottles should have labels removed, pencil cases on desks must be clear plastic.

You are allowed to use a basic translation dictionary as per the Dictionary Policy. Dictionaries will be checked by invigilators during the exam. You are not allowed to have any electronic devices except a calculator. Calculators must comply with the Calculator Policy and will also be checked during the exam.

You must not have any revision notes in your pockets or in the vicinity of your desk. Raise your hand now if you have anything on or around your desk which should not be there.

Any student believed to be conferring or using unauthorised material or notes will be informed of the suspicion and reported to the Exams and Awards Manager for disciplinary action.
