

NCL GO Global Scholarship 2023

Terms & Conditions

1. You must be a current, undergraduate Newcastle University student who is paying UK Home tuition fees to be eligible for this scholarship.
2. The scholarship is only available for students who are undertaking a short-term global placement, which has been approved by Global Opportunities.
3. The scholarship may be used to support any expense associated with the global placement, including, but not restricted to placement/ tuition fees visa, travel and living costs while abroad.
4. Only students who meet one or more of the eligibility criteria (see below) are eligible to apply,
5. Meeting the eligibility criteria and requirements does not guarantee that a scholarship will be awarded.
6. The scholarship will be withdrawn if the approved placement is not eventually undertaken, in which case a member of Newcastle University Global Opportunities team must be informed at the earliest possible opportunity.
7. Full participation in the placement is required and students must submit evidence of this (such as an official transcript or certificate provided by the host organisation). Should recipients not complete the placement, or supply evidence of completion, repayment of some or all the scholarship may be required.
8. The scholarship will be paid in two instalments, an initial instalment of £1250 and a second and final instalment of £250.
 - a. Payment of the first instalment of the scholarship will be made once students provide confirmation of their placement (such as a placement offer or registration document from the host),
 - b. Payment of the second instalment of the scholarship will be made once students have met all the necessary pre-departure requirements.
9. Payment will be made through the University payment system and payment transfers take a minimum of two weeks.
10. Students undertaking a global placement with funding support from the GO Global Scholarship will be required to undertake all necessary administrative and pre-departure requirements.
11. Students who receive a scholarship will be required to provide both an impact and feedback report on their return to Newcastle University. The report may take the form of a written blog or vlog.
12. Failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the scholarship may result in recipients being required to pay back some or all of the funding provided.
13. By submitting an application, you understand and agree the information you provide will be shared with relevant Global Opportunities staff administering the funding. All aspects of your financial and personal circumstances will be treated in complete confidence, and you may withdraw your application at any time by contacting global.opportunities@ncl.ac.uk
