The University Global Coalition (UGC) invites you to join the International Student Challenge to Achieve Zero Hunger. Working in a team with students from UC Davis (USA), EARTH University (Costa Rica), McGill University (Canada), and University of São Paulo (Brazil), you’ll develop novel ways to achieve Zero Hunger (UN Sustainable Development Goal 2).

Eligibility: Open to Newcastle University undergraduate and post-graduate students from all Schools and subject areas.

To Apply: Register your interest by filling out this form.

Deadline to apply: October 31, 2022

Timeline:
- October 31, 2022 - deadline to register your interest
- November 2022 - you will be placed in a team with students from other participating universities
- November 2022 - January 2023 work on the challenge with your group
- February 2023 - presentation of your team project video
- March 2023 - opportunity to present your projects to an international audience during SDG Action and Awareness Week.

Meet students from universities in Canada, Brazil, Costa Rica and the USA
Develop experience of working in cross-cultural teams
Make a meaningful impact on global hunger and nutrition problems!