Opportunity Scholarship (Final Year MBBS/BDS)

Terms and Conditions 2023/24. For final year MBBS (A100) and BDS (A206) students

Updated August 2023
1. If you are a final year UK undergraduate student studying Medicine and Surgery (A100) or Dental Surgery (A206) at Newcastle University, then you may be eligible for this award. You need to meet the conditions detailed in this document in order to be considered.

2. You need to have a household income figure at or below £40,000 to be considered for the award.

3. In order to be considered for the scholarship you need to have been income assessed by Student Finance England (SFE), Student Finance Wales, Student Finance Northern Ireland or the Student Awards Agency for Scotland for the previous (2022/23) academic year.

Students who were intercalating in the 2022/23 academic year will be considered for the scholarship based on their household income assessment for the 2021/22 academic year.

There are no exceptions to the above as the University does not complete income assessments.

4. You must have consented to share your household income details with the University in order to be considered for this award. If you are unsure if you have done this then you should contact the Student Loans Company (SLC) on 0300 100 0612.

5. If you have been classified as independent by SFE (or equivalent) then they will consider your household income to be your personal income (or your personal income and that of your partner). Any enquiries regarding a change of status should be directed to SFE (or equivalent).

6. If you are not in receipt of NHS funding, then you are not eligible for this award, as you will already be in receipt of the Opportunity Scholarship. Please refer to the terms and conditions of the Opportunity Scholarship for more detail on eligibility.

7. Students eligible for the award will be contacted directly by the University via their University Email Address.

8. In order to receive the award, you must update you bank account details via S3P as advised in the entitlement email, even if your details are already up to date.

9. If you are eligible for this award, you will receive a one off cash payment of the following, depending on your household income:

- Household income at or below £25,000 - You will receive a £2,000 cash bursary.
- Household income between £25,001 and £35,000 - You will receive a £1,000 cash bursary.
- Household income between £35,001 and £40,000 — You will receive a £500 cash bursary.

Payments will be processed in mid-January and paid to the Students stipulated bank account declared via S3P.
Additional payments will be made to any newly eligible, or late replying students within 10 working days of bank details being updated on S3P as per point 8.

There will be no early payments or exceptions to the above payment dates. You should allow two working days for potential delays and carefully check all bank accounts before contacting us regarding any non-payment.

10. If you are repeating part of a year or you are studying part time then you will have a reduced fee liability. In this scenario you will receive a pro rata award e.g. if you are paying 50% of the total tuition fee then you will receive 50% of the award).

11. If you withdraw or suspend your studies prior to the expected payment date, you will no longer be eligible to receive the award.

12. You will not be considered for the award if you already hold a degree at honours level or equivalent.

13. You will not receive the award if you if you fail to update your bank details with the University before 24th March 2024.
