

Protocol for Dangerous Behaviours at Organised Student Socials (including dangerous initiations)

1. Introduction

This protocol gives specific information about student discipline in relation to behaviours prohibited at organised student socials (including dangerous initiations).

The protocol should be read in conjunction with the Student Discipline Procedure \(non-academic\) and Student Disciplinary Policy. If you are the subject of disciplinary proceedings in this area (either as The Student Reporter or The Student Responder), we advise you to read this protocol carefully and familiarise yourself with its contents.

The purpose of this document is:

- To outline the University's expectations around conduct on organised student socials;
- To explain how the University responds to reports of behaviour covered under this protocol;
- To show how reports of this nature will be specifically investigated and managed under its civil Student Discipline Procedure.

2. Key Principles

Newcastle University is committed to developing a culture that is positive, inclusive and supportive, to which all staff and students contribute and within which all can reach their full potential.

All Newcastle University students are responsible for their own behaviour and its impact on others. The University's Student Charter: Rights and Responsibilities sets out the standards of conduct the University expects of students in order to ensure a safe, respectful and supportive environment for all members of the University community.

Any report of dangerous behaviours at organised student socials will be treated seriously and anyone found to have behaved unacceptably will be subject to investigation in line with the Student Discipline Policy.

3. Options for reporting incidents and obtaining support

Any student can report or disclose potentially dangerous initiations or other events of this nature to the University, or seek support, via the following routes:

- The University's Report and Support system: <https://reportandsupport.ncl.ac.uk/>
Reports received via this route are held confidentially by the Student Health and Wellbeing Service, and will not be shared with other departments without the explicit consent of the Reporting Party unless the Reporter, or anyone else, is at risk of harm.
- Student Health and Wellbeing Service: <https://www.ncl.ac.uk/wellbeing/supportservices/>
- The Student Progress Service: casework@ncl.ac.uk
- The Students' Union Report and Support system: <https://www.nusu.co.uk/support/>

4. Scope

Any event or activity that could reasonably be perceived as involving improper coercion or manipulation, resulting in a risk of physical or mental detriment to any person, is banned by the University and Newcastle University Students' Union (NUSU).

This protocol applies to all student organisations that are associated with Newcastle University and not just those that are officially affiliated with NUSU. The protocol covers behaviours at any social event, ceremony or ritual, including initiations, and is not limited only to activities that occur around the start of the academic year for the purpose of enrolment of new students into organisations.

See: Appendix 1: Examples of misconduct and likely sanctions

5. Investigation Process

There are two relevant investigation processes:

5.1. University Investigation Process

Where misconduct that falls within the scope of this protocol has been reported to the University, the investigation of the Student Disciplinary Procedure \(non-academic\) will be followed.

5.2. NUSU Investigation Process

Where misconduct which falls within the scope of this protocol has been reported to NUSU, NUSU will conduct an investigation into the report in accordance with the Students Union Disciplinary Policy. NUSU will decide whether to conduct an investigation into an individual student, a committee, or entire student group and an Investigating Officer will be appointed.

Where misconduct has been established, NUSU will report the outcome of its investigation to the University for determination under the University's Student Discipline Procedure. Any result of an investigation held by NUSU is not indicative of the result of an investigation by Newcastle University.

6. Sanctions

The level of Investigation and likely sanctions are listed in Appendix 1.

7. Appeals

The Student Responder and Student Reporter (where applicable) have the right to appeal against any decision, instruction or sanction imposed as a result of the investigation. If you wish to submit an appeal, you should follow the appeals process as set out in the Student Discipline Procedure.
