Welcome

Dear Students,

A very warm welcome to those of you joining the Marketing programme this year, and to returning students as well!

I am delighted to be part of your journey on the N500 programme, which will help you develop the practical skills needed to succeed in the fast-paced marketing field. Our highly structured and vocational programme will enable you to apply in-depth marketing theory to real world business situations through case studies and projects linked to the industry. You will embark on a journey that values applied learning and a critically reflective approach to developing your marketing knowledge, skills and behaviours. Upon completing the degree, you will emerge as a critical and creative thinker and a reflexive practitioner who is self-aware and can deal with complexity and ambiguity - a true leader of tomorrow!

The programme, which is ranked 14th in the UK (The Complete University Guide 2023), is taught by our specialist academics, who are internationally renowned scholars. Their expertise and research-led approach to teaching enables the latest thinking and practice to be embedded into our programme. The taught modules will cover topics such as market research methods, marketing communications and strategic marketing, which will provide you with a wide toolkit for extracting and applying research; as well as for critically analysing the marketing strategies of some of the most renowned global companies.

You are about to embark on a wonderful, yet challenging, learning journey and an excellent team of professional support services staff, personal tutors, lecturing staff, Stage Coordinators and myself, your Degree Programme Director are here to support you in making sure you have a fulfilling and thriving experience.

On behalf of all the staff of the marketing programme, congratulations on securing your place, we look forward to welcoming you and working with you throughout your time on the programme!

Dr Alexander Tevi
Degree Programme Director BSc (Hons) Marketing

Use of Programme Handbook

The purpose of this handbook is to provide you with an overview of your Undergraduate degree programme. This handbook should be read in conjunction with the UG Study Guide which is on the UG Community Canvas site. Together, these will provide you with a guide to the facilities offered to you by both the School and the wider University community. They are designed to complement other information provided by the University.

This handbook provides an accurate picture of the programme at the time of writing, but this may be subject to minor changes during the academic year. You will be informed of any changes through the appropriate channels.
Your programme

This section aims to provide you with some key information on your degree programme. Generic information relating to undergraduate degrees can be found on the Business School Undergraduate Canvas Community in the “UG Study Guide”.

What will my teaching programme be like in 2022/23?

We want you to get the most out of your teaching and learning and will do everything we can to support you. You will be learning through a blended approach of:

- present-in-person (PiP) – on campus activities which show on your timetable
- synchronous – ‘live’ online sessions via Zoom or Teams which show on your timetable
- non-synchronous – recorded content available online which you can access at any time. These will not show on your timetable but Module Leaders will inform you about these activities.

Our 2022/23 modules are built with flexibility in mind if we are required to reduce or suspend the on-campus and in-person teaching. The University is reviewing the situation regularly and will inform you if the public health situation requires that changes be made to delivery method.

We recommend you regularly check the University website for the most up to date information.

Induction

Your induction will include a combination of pre-arrival materials available online via Canvas and a main Induction Week with activities in person and online during 19 – 23 September 2022. This will be followed by extended induction activities to support you settling into your studies as Semester 1 teaching gets underway.

Induction Week will include sessions with your Degree Programme Director (DPD) and/or your Student Stage Coordinator (SSC), and your designated Personal Tutor. This period is also your opportunity to familiarise yourself with the University, the facilities available and to check details such as your timetable. A full schedule will be available on the relevant programme pages in Canvas and published on the current student section of the Business School Website.

About the programme

All undergraduate degree programmes have a modular structure linked to a pattern for the academic year. This is based on a two-semester system located within a 3-term framework.

Each academic year of the degree programme is referred to as a ‘stage’, so that students complete Stages 1, 2 and 3 of their degree. In each stage of their degree, students are required to study modules to a total credit value of 120, in accordance with degree programme regulations. A 20-credit module is equivalent to 200 notional hours of study.

Programme structure

Information on the overall programme structure is available in the programme regulations.

Information on module content is available online. You can expect to be given further details of the content and assessments during the first lecture for each module.
Stage 1 (all programmes) is made up completely of 7 compulsory modules which introduce students to marketing and professional skills.

Stage 2 (all programmes) contains 80 credits of compulsory modules allowing students 40 credits of optional modules. Stage 2 of the degree programme builds on the knowledge and skills acquired at Stage 1. Students have the choice of numerous optional modules, giving them the opportunity to start specialising in areas that interest them.

Mobility year (Placement/Study Abroad):
(4 YEAR PROGRAMME ONLY - 1550U BSc Hons Marketing with Placement and 1555U BSc Hons Marketing with Study Abroad)

On completion of Stage 2 and before entering Stage 3, candidates may as part of their studies for the degree, complete a period of mobility activity. This could be:

- spending a year on a work placement with an approved organisation (minimum 9 months)
- completing a study abroad opportunity (2 semesters)
- completing a combination of work placement and study abroad activity

This is a fantastic opportunity to develop personal skills and gain an insight into working life or gain an international experience.

Students apply for a placement during Stage 2 of the degree programme, and if successful they will normally begin work by September of the academic year, finishing the following summer. The employer will provide induction and training activities as appropriate. Over the placement year there will be contact from staff from the University. Applications for Study Abroad opportunities can be made in the autumn of Stage 2. For further information please visit the Stage 2 UG Canvas Community or contact nubs.placementandstudyabroad@newcastle.ac.uk.

During the mobility activity, students are required to complete and pass one 120 credit academic module, NBS3000: Business School Mobility Module. This module focuses on skills development during the mobility opportunity and asks students to reflect on their experiences. The module is assessed by means of written work.

It is the responsibility of individual students to make sure they meet the visa requirements of the country in which they plan to undertake a study/work placement. Information for students on a Tier 4 or Student Route visa should refer to our website for additional guidance.

We encourage students to contact the Business School Student Experience team during Stage 1 or Semester 1 of Stage 2 to find out more about mobility opportunities.

Stage 3 (all programmes)

The final stage of the degree programme further develops the knowledge and skills acquired at previous stages. Stage 3 consists of a choice between two 40 credit compulsory modules. The remaining 80 credits of optional modules allows students to select from a variety of modules.
Module choice

The degree programme comprises a mixture of compulsory and optional modules. In addition, for assessment purposes, some of these are defined as ‘core’ modules. Some modules have ‘pre-requisites’, in that they require other modules to have been studied previously.

For students other than those at Stage 1, University regulations require students to register their choice of modules for the academic year before the start of the Semester 2 assessment period in the preceding academic year. Any student who wishes to change their module selection may do so during the first week of teaching of Semester 1 (by Friday 30 September 2022). Changes must be approved by the Degree Programme Director, who must be satisfied that where consent is necessary it has been given by the lecturer responsible for the module which the student wishes to select. A Faculty concession is required for any changes to module selections outside the above periods.

To assist with the process of making your module selection for Stages 2 and 3, we will hold module selection sessions after Easter and, information on modules is available from the University’s web page. Full descriptions of each module, including the aims and outcomes, syllabus, skills developed, teaching methods and assessment methods, can be found in the Module Catalogue.

Each module will comprise a mix of teaching and learning methods, including independent study. The Module Catalogue gives the indicative number of hours for each module of scheduled learning and teaching (such as lectures/seminars) and guided independent study (such as assessment preparation/directed reading and research).

Professional accreditation graduate gateway: Chartered Institute of Marketing

The Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM) is the leading professional body for marketers worldwide and exists to develop the marketing profession, maintain professional standards and improve the skills of marketing practitioners. Newcastle University has joined forces with CIM to give students the opportunity to gain professional qualifications through CIM Graduate Gateway. CIM qualifications are highly sought after by employers, and map alongside our own degrees which ensures we are equipping students with the best opportunities for a successful marketing career. Following the successful mapping of the degree against CIM professional marketing qualifications, students, provided that have a 2:2 or 50% pass in their degree, qualify for at least one exemption against CIM qualifications. This means they only have to pass two assessments to gain either the CIM Certificate in Professional Marketing or the CIM Diploma in Professional Marketing, or possibly both.

Institute of Data and Marketing (IDM)

The programme is also accredited by the Institute of Data and Marketing (IDM) meaning you are eligible to sit the examinations for the IDM Certificate in Digital and Data-Driven Marketing.
Degree programme regulations

The degree programme regulations detail the modules to be studied on your degree and any progression requirements, such as the need to pass the taught modules of the degree before proceeding to dissertation. It is important that you read these and make sure you know the requirements of your undergraduate degree. Degree Programme regulations are available online.

Programme specifications

A detailed description of the programme structure, programme aims and learning outcomes can be found in the Programme Specifications online.

This includes information on the knowledge and understanding, intellectual skills, practical skills and transferable/key skills which you are expected to develop and demonstrate during your studies.

Timetable and communication

All modules are offered subject to the constraints of the timetable. Not all modules may be offered in all years and they are listed subject to availability. Module timetables can be viewed online. The timetable website also gives information on how to understand and search for your individual timetable. You can also access your timetable using the Newcastle University App.

Canvas is the main online teaching tool and it is where you will find information for each module including module guides, lecture notes, seminar sheets, assessment details and general module announcements and information. You should make sure you check Canvas on a regular basis. You can also access Canvas using the Canvas App.

All students are assigned an email address and mailbox and this is the email that should be used for communication within the University. You should make sure you check your university email on a regular basis.

University regulations

It is important that you familiarise yourself with the University Regulations, in particular the undergraduate Progress Regulation and Examination Conventions which detail the regulations for study and award of an undergraduate degree. This includes conditions for reassessment in failed modules and criteria for eligibility of an undergraduate award. You are expected to read these and make yourself aware of their implications.

Degree classification

Candidates will be assessed for degree classification on the basis of all the modules taken at Stage 2 and Stage 3, with the weighting of the stages being 1:2 for Stage 2 and Stage 3. The placement year and study abroad year are assessed on a pass/fail basis and do not contribute to the degree classification.
Assessment

Details of the assessment pattern for each module are in the Module Outline Forms for each module, these can be accessed via the University website.

The specific assessment criteria and any rubrics will be detailed in the individual module folders on Canvas.

The assessment will depend on the individual module, and only some of these methods may apply to you, depending on which optional modules you chose in Stages 2 and 3.

You can expect to be assessed by a variety of means, including examinations, assignments both individual and group, presentations and dissertation. The mix of assessment methods is to allow you to demonstrate your understanding of the knowledge outcomes of the programme and also your assimilation of the skills developed during your undergraduate programme.

Details of assessment deadlines will be emailed to you within the first two weeks of term to allow you to plan your workload. You should familiarise yourself with the assignment submission procedures.

Please note that work submitted after the specified deadline, even by just a few minutes, will be treated as a late submission in line with the University policy on Assessment and Feedback. Please see further details in the UG Study Guide in the UG Canvas Community regarding the late submission of assessed work.

Please find below the undergraduate marking criteria for the HaSS faculty which indicates the criteria that are to be met for each degree classification for a range of different types of assessment. You should also refer to module information for module specific marking criteria.

To ensure the quality of our programmes the University appoints External Examiners in line with UK requirements. They help to ensure that the overall standard of the programme award is in line with other University Degrees, evaluate the assessment and marking and make observations and recommendations about the curriculum.

To do this they are provided with programme documentation, they review student performance and the marking process though samples of assessed work and meet with staff and students to discuss their experience. Your work may therefore be reviewed by an External Examiner. The External Examiners for your programme are detailed below.

Most assessments will be marked anonymously, and our submission procedures are set up to allow this. However, the University acknowledges that anonymity can be difficult to maintain for some types of assessment, for example group work, experiential business projects or where there are small cohorts of students. There are also cases where non-anonymous marking may be of benefit, by allowing individual feedback for students. The following modules have non anonymous marking for some or all assessments.

Student voice

At the start of the academic year early in Semester 1, we will be seeking student representatives from your degree programme to join the undergraduate Student Staff Committee (SSC).

If you are interested in being a representative on the Student Staff Committee, please contact the Programme Support Team at marketing.ug@newcastle.ac.uk.

The SSC is a meeting of the student representatives from your subject group with key academic staff and takes place usually four times a year.

If a student (or group of students) has a particular issue or concern regarding the teaching on their degree programme, the best and quickest route is for students and staff to resolve any issues informally.

For any other issues, the SSC is the forum where students (via student representatives) can present their views, issues and concerns. Issues raised by students at SVC are often then considered by the relevant Board of Studies.

Student representatives will also be invited to attend the Board of Studies meetings. These meetings look in detail at the structure, content and quality assurance of small groups of programmes and student representatives are invited to participate in discussions at these meetings with the teaching teams for their degree programme.

Learning community communications etiquette

In accordance with the student charter, it is important that as a community, we communicate with each other in a respectful and professional manner.

The student charter sets out the standards of behaviour expected from our students and the sanctions that can be imposed if these standards are not met. The charter makes specific reference to communications and states that students must undertake to demonstrate high standards of personal conduct and respect in their interactions with the University and the local community. Whilst on this programme you are therefore expected to

- express your opinions in a mature and constructive way
- treat fellow students, University colleagues, neighbours and other people in the community with courtesy, fairness and respect regardless of their personal circumstances, race, ethnic origin, age, gender, marital or parental status, sexual orientation, religion and belief, disability or political views and respect the privacy of students and University colleagues

- demonstrate the above standards in all verbal and written communication, including via social media and email

Read more on our student charter webpages.

Further information about digital safety and digital etiquette is provided on Canvas as part of your induction materials.
