

John Lewis' List of Prohibited Products and Materials

To take part in the opportunity to Win a Pop-Up at John Lewis Newcastle, you will not be allowed to have any of the following items due to John Lewis & Partners rules and regulations. If any of these items are found at your pop-up you will be asked to remove the items from your stand and this may affect your opportunity to continue or return for a pop-up opportunity with John Lewis or START UP in future.

Food and Drink

- Currently all food and drink is prohibited

Non-Food and General Merchandise

- All fashion is currently prohibited
- Remote controlled drones
- Single use plastic straws, drink stirrers and cutlery
- Cotton buds with plastic sticks
- Cot Bumpers
- Secondary travel cot mattresses
- Bamboo tableware for food contact
- Magnets in children's clothing
- Hoverboards
- Gas patio heaters
- Category 3 fireworks
- Bagged compost containing peat
- Disposable BBQs
- Single use vapes
- Weighted baby sleep bags and swaddles
- E-scooters and associated additional battery packs

Tobacco, Drugs, Drug Paraphernalia and Medical Drugs

- Smokable products, e-cigarettes and e-liquid
- Drugs and certain herbal substances including substances used for recreational and medicinal purposes e.g., CBD oil
- Bongs, hookahs and bubblers, vaporisers and their components

Animal Products

- Fur and exotic animal skins
- Hair, including badger hair
- Horn, bone or shell
- Leather and suede when obtained by live skinning or boiling and from sources not originating from the meat/dairy industry
- Feathers when obtained by live plucking
- Merino wool when obtained using the practice of Mulesing
- Angora rabbit wool
- Lambskin and shearling when obtained from sources not originating from the meat/milk industry

Hazardous Materials and Weapons

- Explosives (fireworks, sparklers)
- Flammable items
- Gases
- Toxic substances
- Knives
- Guns or imitation weapons

Other

- Children's clothing
- Children's toys
- Puzzles
- Paddleboards