

The Doctoral College Research Enhancement Funding Application Checklist

Following a triage process to check eligibility and adherence to the criteria. Your application is considered by a cross-university review panel who will assess and score each application they are looking for applications that demonstrate the following:

Post Submission Bursary Applications

- Well-presented and evidenced application with strong support from Academic Supervisor
- Demonstrates strategic alignment with Newcastle University research priorities and potential impact
- Academic Strength of the application/ Does the proposal have academic merit/ add to the research on the subject
  - Clearly demonstrates outputs - including publications, blogs, workshops, outcomes such as networking/developing academic profile
  - Has additional outputs beyond the student's original research
  - Will enhance the students' personal development and support future career goals

Travel and Conference Applications

- The Decision Panel are looking for exceptional applications that provide clear evidence that there has been no clear opportunity to date for you to deliver a paper at a high-level conference.
  - Applications are to be well-presented, and you must have discussed your application with your Academic Supervisor who gives their support to your application.
  - Demonstrates strategic alignment with Newcastle University research priorities and potential impact.
- Demonstrates the impact and outcomes from participation.
- Student is actively participating by presenting, hosting, poster
- Complies with NU travel policy and environmental goals.

Additional training Funding

- Well-presented and evidenced application with strong support from supervisor
- Demonstrates strategic alignment with Newcastle University research priorities and potential impact
- Demonstrates the impact and outcomes from participation
- Will enable the student to develop additional skills and enhances their personal development
  - Is additional to the student's project and will add value to the students' studies
- Complies with UN travel policy and environmental goals (if relevant).