Heirlooms, Tales, and Generations:
Setting Agendas for Family History
Armstrong Reception Rooms, Newcastle University
Thursday 30th and Friday 31st May

This event is supported by Newcastle University Humanities Research Institute
Follow on Twitter: @HistoryNCL @ClassicsNCL @ArchaeologyNCL @nuhri_ncl

!Family Census Taker, USA 1940

Family Census Taker, USA 1940

Day 1: Thursday 30 May

14:00. Welcome and refreshment.

14:30-16:00. Keynote address

Kate Adie, ‘Findings and Foundlings’. Introduced by Prof. Jennifer Richards.

Refreshment

16:30. Networking session, led by Annie Tindley.

18:00. Finish.
Day 2: Friday 31 May

9:00. Welcome and refreshments

9:30-10:30. Panel 1 - Family Histories in Heritage and Practice:

Natasha Anson (Beamish Museum): ‘Living memory, living museum: family stories of the North East in the 1950s at Beamish’.

Joyce Jackman (Northumberland and Durham Family History Society).

Refreshments

11:00-12:00. Panel 2 – Newcastle Scholars 1.

Emma Gooch (Archaeology), ‘Missing Generations: Putting children back into ancient Greek history; looking for juveniles in family contexts’.

Iain Flood (History), ‘Families in Crisis: Familial Connections in Civil War Era Missouri’

Sara Borrello (Classics and Ancient History): 'Children in Politics. Family Strategies under the Roman Republic'

12:00-13:00 Lunch

13:00-14:00pm. Panel 3 - Archives.

Lizzy Baker and Carolyn Ball (Tyne and Wear Archives and Museums), ‘Who do we think we are: the changing role of archives in family-history research’.

Linda Bankier (Northumberland Archives), ‘Family History and Archives – Engaging with the Community’.

Refreshments

14:30-15:30. Panel 4 – Newcastle Scholars 2.

Eric Tourigny (Archaeology), ‘Remembering Fido – Commemoration practices help identify the changing role of animals within British families’.

Jeremy Boulton (History), ‘Necrofamilies: family graves and the material culture of memory’

Andrew Marriott (Archaeology), ‘Family Stories: powerful objects and oral histories’.

Refreshments

16:00. Roundtable and concluding remarks.

18:00. Finish.