

Future Lawyers Scholarships from The University of Law

As part of the collaborative partnership between Newcastle University and The University of Law, we are delighted to have received scholarships from The University of Law to award to some of our students. We have 5 scholarships of £3650 available to students who have graduated from any degree programme at Newcastle University in the 2024-25 academic year and who will start a programme at The University of Law in the 2025-26 academic year. The purpose of these scholarships is to support Newcastle University graduates who wish to progress to study for a professional legal qualification.

The Scholarship funds will be applied to your final instalment payment(s) for any Postgraduate Course, to reduce your payments of your Annual Tuition Fee (as that term is defined in your Student Terms and Conditions) by the Scholarship amount.

To be eligible you must:

- be a graduate from any Newcastle University degree programme
- Hold an offer to study any postgraduate programme at The University of Law commencing in the 2025-26 academic year
- Be able to demonstrate how you have overcome adversity and hardship while pursuing your aspiration to a legal career, and to outline how the scholarship will provide necessary financial assistance to support you with your career development

How to Apply

- Submit a supporting statement of a maximum of 500 words outlining how you have overcome adversity while studying for your current degree, and how this scholarship will provide necessary financial assistance to support you with your career development.

- In order to be eligible for the Scholarship you must also be able to:
  - submit proof of successful completion of any Newcastle University degree programme
  - Demonstrate your intention to study on a University of Law programme by providing evidence of your application and/or offer.
