Recognition of Prior Learning and Credit Transfer Statement

SCHOOL OF PSYCHOLOGY

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL) AND CREDIT TRANSFER FOR PSYCHOLOGY UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMMES

2024-25

SCOPE OF APPLICATIONS

Psychology Undergraduate degree programmes are accredited by the British Psychological Society (BPS) who prescribe the core areas of the discipline that must be studied and examined.

To ensure all programmes adhere to these BPS requirements the School does not accept applications for Recognition of Prior Experiential Learning but will consider applications for Credit Transfer or Recognition of Prior Learning where the programmes have capacity.

Such applications will only be considered for Stage 1 of our Undergraduate programmes (120 credits), with successful applicants being eligible to enroll onto Stage 2 of the programme to which they have applied. Applicants must have achieved a minimum grade average of 55% at Stage 1. Applications for individual Stage 1 modules will not be considered.

Candidates will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Candidates need to meet our entry requirements and also need to demonstrate that their prior teaching in Psychology (and other subjects for Joint Honours) maps on to the learning outcomes of our Stage 1 in all modules. Moreover, candidates need to demonstrate that they have satisfactorily passed all prior modules. We will only grant a credit transfer/RPL in cases where we have full confidence that the candidate is suitably prepared to meet the challenges of our Stage 2 and where the relevant programme has capacity.
