10 Programme Aims

- 1 to offer a research environment in which students can learn about Critical Geopolitics from knowledgeable staff, their own study, and interaction with other students
- 2 to equip students with the conceptual and analytical skills needed to achieve an advanced knowledge and understanding of contemporary critical geopolitics
- 3 to develop students' skills in undertaking and completing self-designed research papers and dissertations
- 4 to provide a conversion course for students whose undergraduate degree is not in critical geopolitics or which did not include a significant component of critical geopolitics
- 5 to produce graduates who, if suitably qualified, will be capable of embarking upon research degrees in critical geopolitics studies
- 6 to produce graduates capable of successfully pursuing careers in government agencies, business, the media and other areas where an advanced knowledge and understanding of contemporary critical geopolitics is needed or desirable
- 7 to meet the needs of stakeholders
- 8 to provide a programme which meets the FHEQ at Masters level 7

11 Learning Outcomes

The programme provides opportunities for students to develop and demonstrate knowledge and understanding, qualities, skills and other attributes in the following areas. Critical Geopolitics; international relations theory; social science methods and methodologies; international and regional studies politics topics; human geography; independent learning; cooperative group work; individual presentations skills

Knowledge and Understanding

On completing the programme students should:

- A1 have an advanced knowledge and understanding of contemporary critical geopolitics
- A2 have knowledge of the more important approaches and methods in social science research and of the techniques required to carry out advanced research
- A3 have a foundation of specialist knowledge and research skills from which they can embark upon careers with significant international dimensions or pursue a postgraduate research degree in critical geopolitics studies
- A4 have the theoretical and practical skills that will enable them to successfully complete an MA dissertation

Teaching and Learning Methods

The primary means of imparting knowledge and understanding is seminars (A1-A4). Throughout the MA programme students are strongly encouraged to engage in independent reading for which they are given extensive support and guidance on reading materials and their appropriate use. Students are strongly supported by staff in their completion of self-designed research projects.

Assessment Strategy
Knowledge and understanding are primarily assessed by unseen 3 hour examinations and research projects both of which are designed to assess theoretical and conceptual understanding and the capacity of students to relate knowledge through case studies and other empirically focused projects (A1-A4).
Intellectual Skills
On completing the programme students should be able to: B1 Synthesise information from a variety of primary and secondary sources B2 Analyse, evaluate and interpret the principal source materials for critical geopolitics B3 Plan, conduct and communicate original research through examinations and research papers B4 Understand the theoretical basis of international studies and human geography research.
Teaching and Learning Methods
Cognitive skills are developed through seminars (B1-B2), research projects (B2-B3, B4) and supervision of research projects and dissertations (B3). Students are encouraged to develop cognitive skills through analysis of case studies (B1), independent reading and designing research projects (B2-B4).
Assessment Strategy
Intellectual skills are examined through unseen written exams, research papers and the MA dissertation (B1-B4).
Practical Skills
On completing the programme students should be able to: C1 Critically evaluate key arguments in critical geopolitics C2 Critically evaluate the most important texts and themes in critical geopolitics C3 Present a reasoned and informed position both in writing and in spoken presentations C4 Identify, locate, and retrieve appropriate paper and electronic materials relevant to critical geopolitics
Teaching and Learning Methods
Critical skills are developed through independent reading and encouraging active participation individually and in groups in seminar settings (C1-C3). Formal spoken presentations (C3) and written research projects (C1-C4) are informed by appropriate materials in critical geopolitics some of which references are provided to students and others of which students have to locate.
Assessment Strategy
Practical skills are assessed through research projects and unseen written examinations (C1-C4).
Transferable/Key Skills
On completing the programme students should be able to: D1 Take responsibility for his/her own learning and personal professional development D2 Manage time and prioritise tasks by working to deadlines D3 Communicate effectively to others when working in seminar group settings. D4 Make effective use of appropriate electronic resources including journals and the internet and undertake effective word processing
Teaching and Learning Methods
Student self learning and time and task management is encouraged in weekly seminars and one on one research supervision sessions (D1-D2). Communication is practiced in weekly seminars (D3). Students are directed to appropriate journals and provided information concerning appropriate internet usage (D4).
Assessment Strategy
Self learning is assessed in the context of the timely submission of research projects and completion of unseen examinations (D1-D2). Effective use of electronic resources is assessed in the context of their analysis and correct presentation in research projects and unseen examinations (D4).

12 Programme Curriculum, Structure and Features
Basic structure of the programme
One year full time or two years part time. 180 credits (120 coursework, 60 dissertation) 100 credits compulsory (2 x 20 credit modules and 1 x 60 credit dissertation), 80 optional credits

13 Criteria for admission
Entry qualifications Normally at least a lower second class honours degree (2:2) or its equivalent.
Admissions policy/selection tools Academic references Candidate's personal statement
Non-standard Entry Requirements Relevant professional experience and/or qualifications may be taken into account in the absence of a satisfactory first degree.
Additional Requirements
Level of English Language capability As set by HASS faculty but usually no less than IELTS 6.5 overall (or TOEFL equivalent)

14 Support for Student Learning
The Student Services portal provides links to key services and other information and is available at: http://www.ncl.ac.uk/students/
Induction During the first week of the first semester students attend an induction programme. New students will be given a general introduction to University life and the University's principle support services and general information about the School and their programme, as described in the Degree Programme Handbook. New and continuing students will be given detailed programme information and the timetable of lectures/practicals/labs/ tutorials/etc. The International Office offers an additional induction programme for overseas students.
Study skills support Students will learn a range of Personal Transferable Skills, including Study Skills, as outlined in the Programme Specification. Some of this material, e.g. time management is covered in the appropriate Induction Programme. Students are explicitly tutored on their approach to both group and individual projects. See also facilities provided by the Robinson library: http://www.ncl.ac.uk/library/teaching/stan/
Academic support The initial point of contact for a student is with a lecturer or module leader, or their tutor (see below) for more generic issues. Thereafter the Degree Programme Director or Head of School may be consulted. Issues relating to the programme may be raised at the Staff-Student Committee, and/or at the Board of Studies.
Pastoral support

All students are assigned a personal tutor whose responsibility is to monitor the academic performance and overall well-being of their tutees. Details of the personal tutor system can be found at <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/undergraduate/support/tutor>

In addition the University offers a range of support services, including the Student Advice Centre, the Counselling and Wellbeing team, the Mature Student Support Officer, and a Childcare Support Officer, see <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/financial-support/>
<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/undergraduate/support/>

Support for students with disabilities

The University's Disability Support Service provides help and advice for disabled students at the University - and those thinking of coming to Newcastle. It provides individuals with: advice about the University's facilities, services and the accessibility of campus; details about the technical support available; guidance in study skills and advice on financial support arrangements; a resources room with equipment and software to assist students in their studies. For further details see <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/disability-support/>

Learning resources

The University's main learning resources are provided by the Robinson and Walton Libraries (for books, journals, online resources), and Information Systems and Services, which supports campus-wide computing facilities, see <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/library/>

All new students whose first language is not English are required to take an English Language test in the Language Centre. Where appropriate, in-session language training can be provided. The Language Centre houses a range of resources for learning other languages which may be particularly appropriate for those interested in an Erasmus exchange. See <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/langcen/>

15 Methods for evaluating and improving the quality and standards of teaching and learning

Module reviews

All modules are subject to review by questionnaires which are considered by the Board of Studies. Changes to, or the introduction of new, modules are considered at the School Teaching and Learning Committee and at the Board of Studies. Student opinion is sought at the Staff-Student Committee and/or the Board of Studies. New modules and major changes to existing modules are subject to approval by the Faculty Teaching and Learning Committee.

Programme reviews

The Board of Studies conducts an Annual Monitoring and Review of the degree programme and reports to Faculty Teaching and Learning Committee.

External Examiner reports

External Examiner reports are considered by the Board of Studies. The Board responds to these reports through Faculty Teaching and Learning Committee. External Examiner reports are shared with institutional student representatives, through the Staff-Student Committee.

Student evaluations

All modules, and the degree programme, are subject to review by student questionnaires. Informal student evaluation is also obtained at the Staff-Student Committee, and the Board of Studies.

Mechanisms for gaining student feedback

Feedback is channelled via the Staff-Student Committee and the Board of Studies.

Faculty and University Review Mechanisms

The programme is subject to the University's Internal Subject Review process, see http://www.ncl.ac.uk/aqss/qsh/internal_subject_review/index.php

16 Regulation of assessment

Pass mark

The pass mark is 50 (Postgraduate programmes)

Course requirements

Progression is subject to the University's Masters Degree Progress Regulations, Taught and Research (<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/regulations/docs/>) and Examination Conventions for Taught Masters Degrees (<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/regulations/docs/documents/MastersRegs0809.pdf>). Limited compensation up to 40 credits of the taught element and down to a mark of 40 is possible and there are reassessment opportunities, with certain restrictions.

The University employs a common marking scheme, which is specified in the Taught Postgraduate Examination Conventions, namely:

Summary description applicable to postgraduate Masters programmes

<50	Fail
50-59	Pass
60-69	Pass with Merit
70 or above	Pass with Distinction

Summary description applicable to postgraduate Certificate and Diploma programmes

<50	Fail
50 or above	Pass

Role of the External Examiner

An External Examiner, a distinguished member of the subject community, is appointed by Faculty Teaching and Learning Committee, after recommendation from the Board of Studies.

The External Examiner is expected to:

- See and approve examination papers
- Moderate examination and coursework marking
- Attend the Board of Examiners
- Report to the University on the standards of the programme

In addition, information relating to the programme is provided in:

The University Prospectus (see <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/postgraduate/>)

The School Brochure (contact gps-postgraduate-enquiries@ncl.ac.uk)

The University Regulations (see <http://www.ncl.ac.uk/regulations/>)

The Degree Programme Handbook

Please note. This specification provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and of the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve if she/he takes full advantage of the learning opportunities provided. The accuracy of the information contained is reviewed by the University and may be checked by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education.
