We are delighted to welcome you to Newcastle University. The In-Sessional English team is here to help you to effectively communicate knowledge of your subject area. We help you to bridge the gap between general English and the academic English needed to succeed in UK university life. Depending on your score in the University English Language Assessment (UELA), you will be able to attend up to ten hours of support classes each week. All of this support is free and aims to help you achieve your full academic potential. Make sure you take full advantage of it!

We offer courses that range from lecture-style to workshop format, covering reading, writing, listening and speaking. We also offer 1-to-1 writing tutorials, where you can meet a teacher for 25 minutes to discuss specific problems that you are encountering with your written assignments. For further details about the specific support available to you, please refer to the contents list on the opposite page.

We wish you all the best with your studies and hope you enjoy your time at Newcastle.

University English Language Assessment

What is the UELA?
All students at Newcastle University can access support for their academic English through either the In-Sessional English Programme or the University’s Writing Development Centre. The UELA is an English language assessment which is designed to determine which of these types of support is most suitable for you.

What do the UELA results mean?
The UELA does not affect entry onto your Degree Programme. You will be given two scores: one for listening and one for writing.

Do I have to take the UELA?
As stated in the University English Language Policy (http://www.ncl.ac.uk/international/courses/ language/#overview), all non-native speakers of English who are attending Newcastle University must take the UELA unless they can show evidence that they meet one of the following criteria for exemption:

- IELTS 7.0 or above in all four skills
- Integrated Skills in English (ISE) III or ISE IV
- Continuation of study on a Degree Programme at a Newcastle University campus overseas, such as NUMed or NIUS
- Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English, Grade A or B
- Cambridge Advanced Certificate, Grade A
- GCSE, AS or A Level in English or English Language, Grade C or above

Successful completion, within the last 12 months, of either an undergraduate degree (with a 2:1 or higher), a postgraduate degree or at least five years of secondary / higher education through the medium of English in one of the countries listed below:
- Antigua and Barbuda, Australia, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, Canada, Dominica, Grenada, Guyana, Ireland, Jamaica, New Zealand, St Kitts and Nevis, St Lucia, St Vincent and the Grenadines, Trinidad and Tobago, United Kingdom and United States of America.

How do I exempt myself?
Please note that if you exempt yourself from the UELA, you will not be able to take any In-Sessional classes.

From Wednesday 18th September until 12pm noon on Friday 20th September, there will be a dedicated exemption desk on the ground floor of the INTO building. From Monday 23rd September until Friday 27th September, this desk will be found next to Lecture Theatre 3 in the Herschel building. You must bring the original documents that support your exemption request.

From Monday 30th September until Friday 18th October, there will be a member of staff available on the ground floor of the INTO building between 11am and 1pm.

If you would like to apply for an exemption after 18th October, please email your supporting documentation to insessional@ncl.ac.uk.

For further details, visit: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/insessional/uela/exemptions.htm

What do I need to take to the UELA?
- Your university smart-card as identification.
- If you do not have your university smart-card, you need to bring:
  - your self-service registration print out or your university offer letter, and photo ID, such as your passport.
- All documents must be original. They will be taken from you as you enter the room and returned to you at the end of the UELA session.

When and where can I take the UELA?
- Please choose a time from the schedule. You must arrive 10 minutes before the start of the session. Latecomers will not be admitted.
- The duration of the assessment is approximately two hours. Please note that these times may be subject to last minute changes. An up-to-date version of the UELA schedule is available at: www.ncl.ac.uk/students/insessional/uela/timetable.htm

What happens if I don’t take the UELA?
Newcastle University takes the language support of non-native speaker students very seriously. If you have not taken the UELA by Friday 18th October 2019 for Semester 1 registrations or Friday 14th February 2020 for Semester 2 registrations, you will be referred to the University Student Progress department. You will receive daily reminder emails until you have either taken the UELA or obtained an exemption.

How will I get my results?
- You will receive your UELA results in an email sent to your Newcastle University email account.
- The email will include your scores, levels and some advice as to which In-Sessional classes are most suitable for you.
- We aim to do this within four working days of your UELA session.
- UELA results are also sent to your Academic School to help personal tutors advise you on whether you may benefit from In-Sessional classes.

How should I register for classes?
The registration process varies according to the session that you would like to attend. Please refer to pages 6 - 42 for details of the support available to you and how to register.

Note
All In-Sessional provisions are arranged on a first come, first served basis. The sooner you register, the more likely there will be availability in the classes you wish to join.
